Born in Chicago…raised on the South Side…strains of Muddy, Hound Dog, Wolf in the air. Sometimes when that Blues Stew gets to bubbling it spits out somebody who can't be easily classified, a person that doesn't sound like anybody else.

A genuine Bluesman.

That's Paul. I've seen him play a mess of times over the last 20 years. Wherever it's been has been pretty much transformed into a Roadhouse by the time he was done. And anyone in the crowd who wasn't particularly a Blues lover is converted.

Paul is not a jazz or rock musician who has turned to the blues because it's the "in" thing. It's in him, has been for years and he's got to let it out. A great guy as well as a great songwriter and player, he's always been able to attract the best musicians to back him up on his recordings. The disc you now hold in your hands is no exception.

When you listen to this recording for the first time you might as well invite the neighbors. You're going to want to crank it, so they'll end up hearing it anyway. Besides, you can make them bring the beer.

Enjoy!

"Now there's a new way to shake the blues, and it's right here in the music of Pete Gumbo & Zydeco-A-Go-Go . . . right here on the band's newest release. What else can make you forget all your worldly cares, dissolve all your tension and allow you to truly Let The Good Times Roll? This band is practically guaranteed to get you up on your feet and coax you into the relaxing yet, rhythmic dances of down-home Zydeco music.

For many years now, Zydeco-a-Go-Go's music has been mesmerizing audiences all over the East Coast with the steady beat and joyous dance tunes that have deep roots in the Creole tradition of French-speaking Louisiana. I have had first-hand experience watching this band captivate audiences with it's uninhibited enthusiasm and sheer musical talent. And believe me, few bands in the East can capture the real Zydeco flavor the way Zydeco-a-Go-Go can.

Take this album home. You gotta love it!"

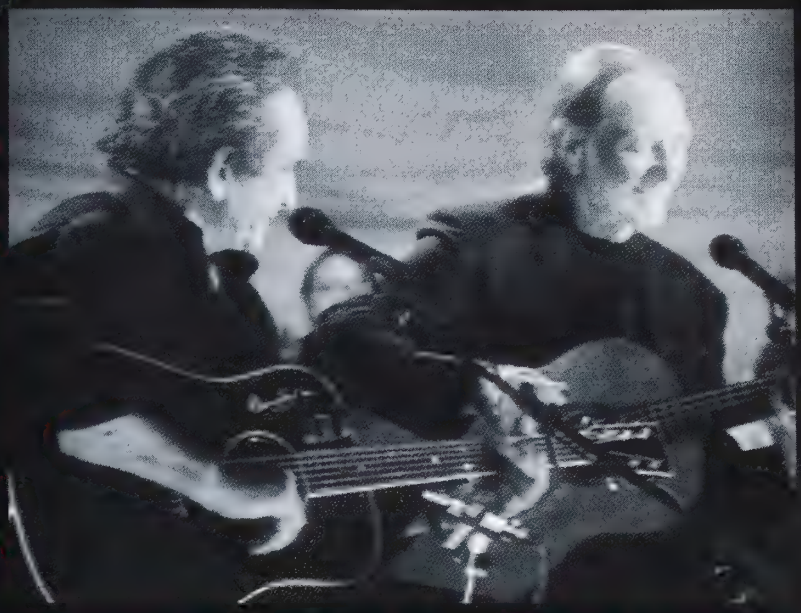
WILLIE AND ME



"MY MANAGER, LOU ROBIN, SAID 'ALL VH1 WANTS IS TWO GUITARS, TWO STOOLS AND YOU AND WILLIE.'"

I APPROACH THE SITUATION WITH MUCH TREPIDATION, FOR AS I WALK ON THE STAGE, THERE IS A BARN FULL OF CHROME AND STEEL MICROPHONES, AMPLIFIERS AND ABOUT A THOUSAND MILES OF WIRE. THE AUDIENCE IS THREE FEET AWAY, BOXING US IN, BUT WITH FRIENDLY FACES. WE PICK, YET WE KNOW NOT WHAT WE PICK. NO PLANNED PROGRAM. SWAPPING SONGS FROM OUT OF THE BACK OF OUR HEADS. JUST LIKE A GUITAR PULL AT MY HOUSE. HE LOOKS AT ME AND SEES THAT I AM WATCHING HIM. NOW HE'S WATCHING ME. I THINK HE KNOWS I MADE A WRONG CHORD. HE GETS OVER IT. WE GET INTO A SONG THAT FEELS GOOD, WILLIE AND ME. I WATCH WILLIE'S HANDS AS HE TAKES A GUITAR LEAD. HE PLOWS INTO A NOTE AND, AT THE SAME TIME, THERE IS A SLIGHT GRIMACE ON HIS FACE, AS IF IT MIGHT HURT JUST A LITTLE BIT. AS HE PULLS THE NOTE OFF, HE GRITS HIS TEETH. I'VE SEEN HANDS LIKE THAT IN THE COTTON FIELDS. ROUGH. GNARLY. DEXTROUS. DETERMINED. PRECISE. CONCISE. FASCINATING. THAT SAID, HOW ABOUT GREED, LUST. ANGER. SLOTH. GLUTTONY. ENVY. PRIDE. THE SEVEN DEADLY SINS. BUT NONE OF THEM COMMITTED HERE TONIGHT, EXCEPT MAYBE ENVY ON MY PART.

Swamp

„Wozu Liner Notes? Sie sollten scharf machen auf die Platte - aber wem nutzt es, wenn sie im Inneren einer verschweißten CD verborgen sind? Außerdem: Wer Swamp Attack einmal live gehört hat, wird ohnehin nichts anderes wollen als MEHR DAVON, live oder in Form dieser Scheibe. „Live" - das können wir uns abschminken, weil ab sofort nicht mehr von einer Attacke, sondern vom Rückzug die Rede ist. Swamp Attack sounds the retreat - sie hören auf, gehen auseinander, verdammt noch mal, einfach so, machen uns wild und scharf auf MEHR DAVON und dann: Ende, aus, das war's ...

Einer der besten Tage in den letzten Jahren war für mich, als ich die Band bei einem Cajun- und Zydeco-Festival 1995 in Koblenz zum ersten Mal sah und hörte - ich bin ja ein hartgesottener Typ, habe Gott und die Welt gehört auf beiden Seiten des Teiches, besonders aber in den Zydeco-Schuppen Louisianas, in den Roadhouse-Clubs von Mississippi, in allen denkbaren Bars und Kneipen zwischen New Orleans und Chicago. Ich habe mit Little Feat im Peabody-Hotel in Memphis die Enten gezählt und in Boozoo Chavis' Band in Lake Charles geschrubbt, habe die ersten Zydeco Bands ins verrockte Deutschland gebracht und Dr. John und Zachary Richard veranstaltet - und dann werfen mich diese kölschen Jungs mit ihrer gelebten Gute-Laune-Musik aus dem Sattel! Spielen dieses bediente Südstaatenzeug, als hätten sie im Delta die Brust bekommen, covern frisch und fröhlich Songs von Dr. John und Little Feat, von Chenier und Richard, daß einem der Steigbügel schwingt und die Seele kocht.

Zum ersten mal habe ich „Come Together" so gehört, wie es die Beatles hätten spielen sollen, und DeVilles „Bamboo Road" (hab' ich nie gern gehört) läuft mir in die Ohren wie Mint Julep in die Kehle. Apropos: Das „Filé Gumbo", das Swamp Attack hier auf großer Flamme kocht, hat genau die Zutat, die man bei den meisten Gumbos vermißt, nämlich jenes Filé (ein weißes Gewürzpulver), das hier kein Mensch zu kriegen weiß geschweige denn zu spielen versteht. Zu meinen anderen Lieblingssongs dieser CD gehören „Uncle Bud" - Boozoo, hör' Dir Deinen Song an! Und Zachs „Congo Square", Feats „Rad Gumbo" und „Zydeco Party" (so wie ihr in Koblenz von der Zydeco Party Band begeistert wart, war ich von euch und noch einen oben drauf!). Einen vergessen? Auf einmal schmecken mir auch „Peanuts 'n Beer". Wenn ich nur MEHR DAVON bekäme! Mehr von dieser geballten Südstaatenladung, pur, unverwässert, mit allem Feeling, mit der ganzen Power. Aber - mehr solls nicht geben! Keine rockigen Soli, keinen schweißtreibenden, funkig-faszinierenden Beat der Second Line von N'Awlins, mit dem sie in geschickt eingefädelter Regie auf der Bühne den Klangrausch gesteigert haben, der absolut nicht fürs lauschige Eckchen geeignet ist (war). Und die Vielfalt des Repertoires, das auf die großzügige Besetzung zurückzuführen ist! Ich werde die gut funktionierenden Stimmbänder ebenso vermissen wie die gekonnte clowneske Lässigkeit, die Faszination der harten Rhythmen, Heiners funkiges Boogie Piano, Franks fröhliche Quetsche, Guidos Saiten-Akrobatik, den quirligen Andreas und seine Sprünge hoch an Franks Mikro und Guidos (der andere) soliden Beat. Es ist ein Jammer! Sie koch(t)en ein neues musikalisches Gumbo, das sie mit vielen edlen Zutaten garnier(t)en, mit traditioneller Louisiana Musik, Reggae, Rock und Funk. Dr. John hätte sie „Tricknologists" und „Mujicians" genannt, deren Südstaaten-Gumbo in ihren Gehirnen brennt, aber keine Löcher in ihre Seelen. Jetzt suche ich Anschluß an eine Selbsthilfegruppe für Peanuts 'n Beer-Süchtige!

CD SINGLE
LILIAN LILLY
MCA RECORDS
FOR PROMOTIONAL USE ONLY
NOT FOR SALE

Lillian Lilly – the first solo recording artist to break out from the world's No. 1 Mississippi Mass Choir – makes her stunning debut with Gotta Have Faith.

If you know the Mississippi Mass Choir's megahit It's Good To Know Jesus, then you already know Lillian Lilly. As principal soloist for the currently Grammy-nominated choir, she sang on all five of its wildly successful albums and also sang lead on its hits I Just Can't Tell You, Holy City, There Is None Like Him and, of course, It's Good To Know Jesus.

Gotta Have Faith now showcases the powerful voice that rose from the rank and file of the 150-member Mississippi Mass to become a premiere soloist on album after album.

Gotta Have Faith nurtures and showcases Lillian's talent with such ideally suited gospel songs as the spirited title cut, the thought-provoking Did You Stop To Pray and the rousing Have You Received The Holy Ghost. The soaring title cut is the CDs first single. Lillian also conquers two-masterworks – the worshipful Not By Power and the gripping There Is Always Hope.

Lillian's ability inspires allegiance. Gotta Have Faith was produced by Malaco recording stars Dorothy Norwood and Jerry Smith and Mass Choir/Malaco gospel director Jerry Mannery. Guest vocalists on Gotta Have Faith include Norwood – who is a current Grammy nominee and a three-time 1996-97 Stellar nominee – and the Rev. James Moore, who was guest soloist on the mass choir's No. 1 Live album.

"Lillian's talent is exceeded only by her spirit," Norwood said of choosing to produce Lillian.

A native Mississipian, Lillian was an original member of the Mississippi Mass Choir and a key in all three of its No. 1 albums.

We gotta – and do – have faith that Lillian's solo disc will rise to that familiar top spot.

File this under Blues. That's what we play. 3-4 nights a week. More if you want to hire us. We like to play all types of blues and we've learned more than a few things from backing up some of the originators of this music. We're gonna keep it simple. Thanks for listening and we'll see you where the blues are played.

so long - The body pulls the mind to hell and don't forget that they will judge you don't get me wrong
it's not a god it's this world I'm thinking of and when you wake up and can't stop shaking decisions
well they make no sense so don't get out of bed it's not your head it's this world I'm thinking of the cars
the shoes you're looking good the compliments the confidence it doesn't mean shit so just sit back and let your body handle it the things they do they seem untrue you'll never be what you want to don't get me wrong its not your fault it's what you get from your results you lost the ones you found it's been so long it's been so long go back home and go to sleep again you walk the streets and blur your site and then you'll see the yellow lights the cars at night the creeps the dogs the broken kites the smiles the screams remembered things the clothes you where when you are there looking! looking! Who are you fooling don't ever
try they will eat you alive innocence say goodbye say goodbye

oh, bessy! - Bessy what's on your mind can it be that things are good that things are fine family where are you what hurts me will surely hurt you too daytime it's coming up something is bound for you and me and what it is I don't know we'll have to wait and see thaddeus he comes and goes he thinks I'm great he told me so last I saw he was very tall and he grew a beard oh boy you're growing older by the second your head is filled with sentimental recollections they don't have the answers to your questions
they don't have bessy I dream of you of condensation 2 by 2 a great big ocean as wide as the eye can see maybe one day
you'll marry me

chop the tree - I want to chop the tree carry the wood and burn the leaves and when the job is done this old boy will have had his fun hello hello hollow tree I've come to read your eulogy I want to plant and sow and make my garden
grow and if my garden dies well then this old boy will have feared no flies so long so long sleepy bear I'll turn your bed into a chair the last I saw she was at the station 43 bags for only a weeks vacation if I see her again it will be the end
i love you - I love you I love you I love you I love you I love you oh I love you I love you I love you I love you 'cause I've come to and I slipped through when I met you and I'll jump high it's my last try and I won't lie and I won't cry 'cause I'll fake it through this shit I won't quit forget it I'll admit just one bit just don't let just don't let just don't ever let me lie in my bed because the things that I've done and said they will break me just don't let me contemplate my mistakes because my eyes will go blank
and stare and I wont care I love you

wake - I woke up early this morning but my eyes didn't know what to do my girlfriends lying on the bathroom floor and she's turning blue we're late again and it's time to go this isn't working and it doesn't fit my girlfriend stayed out all night she said "The day was too bright" She don't get it my love she sits and looks into the mirror till she finds love and when she sees it she gets flustered
and she goes blind she looks so glorious glorious I woke up early this morning and the lamp and
the fan were on fire I tried to get some cold water but the flames well they flamed higher and higher
we're late again and it's time to go this isn't working and it doesn't fit I've been having difficulties from making dinner to asking for help please my love she sits and looks into the mirror till she finds
love and when she sees it she's disgusted and she goes blind she looks so glorious glorious it makes me cry it was about time you left me I'll come alive today

mercy mercy pudding pie - I'm only looking for you through the alleyway and the shiny shoe remember how things ought to be with a cat
on the bed and the gravy on the meat but I used to think romantic thoughts of other girls and I'd go outside when the rain came down so I swim like a fish to your door and I knock! knock! and fix my hair like it was before well
I've waited all night at the bar because I wanna be drunk when I find out where you are I spent all my money on stupid things so I couldn't buy the nice thing inside the house there's a party and the shadows make like monkeys
on the wall I see a girl who looks just like you but when she turns there's no resemblance at all oh baby pretty baby how I loved you so and just how much you'll never know so it sounds like a party but I'm spitting in the air and the telephone it aint ringing because I've got nobody to care "so he drinks like a donkey and he talks like a monkey" because my mind is cheap and my lip is dumb and I got shit all in my mind and candy in my mouth so when I walk, OH! I walk alone in that room is where I'll be settled like dust in a fancy new seat dressed like a business man but not busy at all we're gonna hit the top we're gonna break the fall yeah yeah

de you

l what you do,
how you break through
world is our puzzle,
We are the glue
Whole thing depends on what you
d like it to do

e's no one else to blame
re one and of the same
t get yourself caught in the blaming
e

l what you do
how you break through
world is our puzzle,
We are the glue
Vhole thing depends on what you
d like it to do

nore blaming yourself or the other trust in your sister and trust in your ıer

ACE

e it comes
n you're on your own
ss you learn,
will you know?
you'll be fine
natter what seems true
e you know
t you want to do
re READY

le older now,

And you've found your place
And you're hoping to remain in a
SACRED PLACE
Where you'll invite
Someone inside
Open up and LOVE
and take the ride
You're READY
Are you READY?

Open up when you think you can't open
up,
And you will see the BEAUTY OF IT
ALL
The BEAUTY OF IT ALL is in everything

Sometimes you think
What might have been
Keeps you awake
Belief in SIN
When it only means
You've missed your mark
At any point,
A flash can spark
You're READY

Open up where you think you can't open
up
And you will see the BEAUTY OF IT
ALL,
The BEAUTY OF IT ALL is in EVERYTHING

Over saturated, misunderstood
Hidden away told its for your own good Knees to your chest OK, I'll play your game
Prepare for the Crash, Prepare to Go
INSANE

Ooooooooh, what will you do?

Don't want to see
Its what you want
Don't want to know
So don't believe
Don't want to care
And you won't find it
And you won't know it
When it comes

The years flow by
And you've done it well,
You're near the end,
and you can tell
Got no regrets
Never missed your chance
Now shake your bones,
and DO YOUR DANCE
You're READY!
Are you READY?

Open up when you think you can't
And you will see that everything's inside
of
WHATS IN FRONT OF YOU
When we love one another then we find it
(GRACE)
Won't you help me find it now?

RUSSELL BATISTE AND FRIENDS
RUSS B & Friends
Follow Your Dreams

Russell Batiste has a personality and style of drumming so lively and unique that it truly reflects the spirit of his native New Orleans home. When you hear that dirty, syncopated backbeat lock into a groove you know it could only be one man: Russell Batiste. From a homegrown bloodline of the Crescent City music community Batiste rides the rhythms of his family and his city to new levels of playing, blending the old school styles with the new and creating a sound that is all his own. Pure Batiste funk. This album features an incredibly eclectic mix of artists and styles from New Orleans and beyond. Go get with it and hear what it is Russell's got to say. Follow Your Dreams, Kids.

RUSSELL BATISTE & FRIENDS are...

Russell Batiste Jr...Drums & Vocal & Percussion & Keyboard
Sazo Shibayama...Guitar

BLUE AIN'T HOW I FEEL

denise marie

Blue ain't how I feel, it's a couple shades darker than any real blues feel
and the darkness in my mind
only feeds the emptiness in my heart
dragging down my soul till I fall apart
I guess I just don't understand
how one man can make me feel this way
he's got his own life he's living
while mine's just falling to ruin
dragging down my soul till I fall apart
I wish I'd just forget about him
so I could go on with my life
but at the same time I'm wishing he'd come back and make everything alright
but oh I know that just won't happen tonight

guitar and vocals - denise marie.
tenor saxaphone - william terry. bass - james singleton. drums - johnny vidacovich

I'M COMING HOME

denise marie

Don't worry baby I'm coming home
been a long time on the road
spent a long time on my own
Long nights and lonely days
make certain things so clear
when you have a love that's true
why look for someone new
I'm coming home, back where I belong
in your loving arms where it's safe and warm
I'm coming home
Well go on and chase the rainbow
and maybe someday find that pot of gold
I've been searching such a long time
Only to find you were right here all of this time.

drums - johnny vidacovich. bass - james singleton.
guitar and vocals - denise marie.
accordion - bart ramsey

denise marie

I promised myself I wouldn't think about you today
I didn't need no help till the sun went away
then down came the tears and out came the pain
I miss you my dear more and more every day
I can make it alright if I sing a song
Yeah, I know I'll get by if I just hang on Till the morning comes and that blue sky makes me strong
but watch that evening sun turn me blind and make me fall
turn me blind and make me fall
I fall back in love with you every time the sun goes down
I just want to be loving you when the evening rolls around
well I can drink I can play I can stay out late
but not a night goes by when I don't feel this ache
I fall back in love with you every day
I keep telling myself "girl, you're living a lie"
but I'm under a spell, yeah, I'm spellbound and tied Everyone I know thinks I've really lost my mind
well, I guess that must be so, I won't even try to deny it
I won't even try to deny it.

guitar, vocals - denise marie. piano - bart ramsey.
bass - james singleton. drums - johnny vidacovich

SHE DANCES LIKE A HOOKER

denise marie

Down here on my own I'm doing solitary time
Yeah, it's a one-woman show
His long black hair still stays on my mind
I met this Indian man back in new mexico, he said, "I really like the way you play."
He grabbed me off the stage and
spun me all around the floor
and laughing I heard him say
"She dances like a hooker
She dances like a hooker
Ooh, hillbilly girl, you got some moves
You dance like a hooker."
Just as predicted I fell
Yeah, jump right in and later on
you can learn how to swim
I wonder if he could tell that more than anything
I wanted a friend
He said, "I really like you princess pale-moon"
But I couldn't hide my white skin
"You're too white, too bright, but we'll just turn out the light and try
that double-dip,
side-swoop again."
Down here on my own
I'm doing solitary time
Yeah, it's a one-woman show
Well they say freedom is a state of mind
Now being tied to the wagon wheel
boy it sure is a bumpy ride
well, I suspect I made you feel
and that's not what you're
after tonight.

bass - james singleton

"Bill Lupkin has been in the thick of Chicago Blues for more than 38 years & still gets one of the best tones in the Blues Biz. If you don't believe me, check this CD out for yourself." –Mark Hummel

"In the Chicago blues harp club, Bill Lupkin has the chops, the tone, the attitude and the dues paid in full for Real Deal status. Enjoy this all-original program and stellar ensemble work, and be glad the music's past is still its present and future, and in good hands!" –Dick Shurman

Frank just phoned and said this is the last thing he's waiting for so I have to get it down quick: we moved into Willem's studio for ten days to record the songs onto the 16 track tape in the living room; we did vocals and birds in the kitchen, the horn section on the landing, put Albert's amp in one bedroom and the leslie speaker in the other, but this woman comes storming round saying she doesn't mind the loud blues guitar but stop that distorted organ immediately, so we mix it all down onto a really touchy dat machine, and Willem says if the smoke, whiskey and pizzas don't kill him, the bad jokes will.

Spanner Banner has been one of the island's top singers and performers since his first Jamaican #1, "Life Goes On." Now he teams up with dancehall's top current stars including Sean Paul, Lady Saw, Chaka Demus & Pliers, Richie Spice, and many more, for a modern mix of dancehall, r&b, and lover's rock. Heavyweight producers including Sly & Robbie, Jeremy Harding, and Clive Hunt create the hit-filled powerhouse selections that make up Real Love. Spanner Banner is a naturally smooth and sophisticated singer from the musically rich Bonner family, which includes his brothers, Pliers (of Chaka Demus & Pliers fame), and new hitmaker Richie Spice. Real Love collects new Jamaican singles and other recent, choice cuts from Spanner's catalog, including a brand new re-working of "Life Goes On." All tracks recorded with top Jamaican musicians.

There are three figures represented in the Chart, which we will refer to as the upper figure, the middle figure, and the lower figure. The upper figure is the I AM Presence, the I AM THAT I AM, the individualization of God's presence for every son and daughter of the Most High. The Divine Monad consists of the I AM Presence surrounded by the spheres (color rings) of light which comprise the causal body. This is the body of First Cause that contains within it man's "treasure laid up in heaven."

The middle figure in the Chart is the Mediator between God and man, called the Holy Christ Self, the Real Self, or the Christ consciousness. The lower figure is surrounded by a tube of light, which is projected from the heart of the I AM Presence in answer to your call. It is a cylinder of white light which sustains a forcefield of protection 24 hours a day, so long as you guard it in harmony. It is also invoked daily with the "Heart, Head, and Hand Decrees" and may be reinforced as needed.

The threefold flame of Life is the divine spark sent from the I AM Presence as the gift of life, consciousness, and free will. It is sealed in the secret chamber of the heart that through the Love, Wisdom and Power of the Godhead anchored therein the soul may fulfill her reason for being in the physical plane. Also called the Christ flame and the liberty flame, or fleur-de-lis, it is the spark of a man's Divinity, his potential for Christhood.

"Morris pioneers an innovative blues style on this recording. John Morris clearly feels the blues."

- Leslie Ann Knight, Monday Morning Blues, KKUP-FM Cupertino Ca

". . . the kind of inventive, distinctive player that can tear up a tavern and is musically compelling enough to engage a larger concert audience."

- Tom Miller, promoter, Santa Cruz Ca

"John Morris has plenty of heart and soul."

Old Wives' Tale

Younger Limbs

The Creative Motel, Inc.

"...amped-up, high-focus, twitchy, and sweaty. This is late-night music -- churning synths, funky basslines, and DFA Records-style cowbell create a roiling, speed-paranoia vibe that still stays danceable. - Miami New Times. Brothers Jaime and Felipe Valencia formed Old Wives' Tale in 2006 shortly after making the decision to relegate their biology, chemistry, music and audio engineering diplomas to mere wall decorations. Infected by an angst that resonated in every indie club in Miami's design district, Jaime and Felipe joined their contrasting music personalities to create a fresh sound composed of distorted bass lines, disco beats, ripping guitars, and lyrics referencing alter-egos, heart-breaking love affairs, and one-night stands. Younger Limbs is a perfect example of what the brothers have coined "amphetamine music." It'll take just one listen to hear the term justified. Songs such as "danceDanceDAncing," "Royal Flesh," "Vending Johnny," and the stand out single "[15]Amphetamine" (along with it's impressive accompanying video recently selected by Michel Gondry [Eternal Sunshine of The Spotless Mind] as the "Audience Choice Award" winner in the Babelgum.com Video Music Awards) all live up to the "amped-up, high-focus, twitchy, and sweaty" declaration of the Miami New Times above.

Chilly GONZALES
IVORY TOWER

"This man can do no wrong." – Time Out, November 2009

Being the hardest working man in music and all, Chilly Gonzales is also in the process of completing a feature length film that shares the same title as the new album, Ivory Tower. Co-written by himself and Celine Sciamma (who wrote the award winning French film Waterlillies / La Naissance des Pieuvres) and starring Chilly, Tiga and Peaches, the film is an an existentialist sports comedy about chess and success.

First single 'Never Stop' produced by Boys Noize marks a musical departure for Gonzales from his last albums Solo Piano (2004) and Soft Power (2007) as he delves into yet another genre with ease, seemingly doing it better than all the poor schmucks who spend a lifetime trying. From the stark finger click intro, swiftly joined by the layers of piano and Gonzo's 'Never Stop' vocal refrain, we are taken on a deft and addictive journey that builds into an acidic euro pop crescendo. 'Do it again?' Don't mind if we do thanks.

since we last spoke i learned about chess.
seriously i thought i had enough but the
brain work of visualizing a chess board
saved my ass. boys noize is a musical genius
so thank the gods that he was there to pick up my slack. people helped me and its
shaken up all of my misanthropic beliefs.
i understand why entertainers are generous
its because they have to be. but regular people? why would they do that?
this is me asking you to enjoy this.

Skinny Dippin'

Durkin-Funke-Gordon-Tripuzzi

If the shoe fits, why don't you wear it.
If the dress is tight, why don't you tear it.
If the mood is right, why don't you bear it, Let's go Skinnydippin.

One shoe off then the other one.
One leg out then the other one,
Just take your shirt off now we've just begun, Let's go Skinnydippin.

One toe in then the other one.
It's a little nippy but we're havin fun
Stick your feet into the mud and then Let's get down and dirty.

I saw your hiney, it's kinda shiney
Don't try to fake it I saw you naked.
You better hide it before I bite it,
Let's go skinnydippin.

Let's go let's go, Let's go skinnydippin
Now we're slippin and we're slidin.
Between our bodies the water's glidin.
Oh the moon is out and the time is right
Seize the day and go all night.

So Sweet

Funke

Did You Say what I think you said that I saw? Or was it something I heard? Just sit back relax yourself and speak your mind I want to hear every word.

Rain stains my window pain and it's not the same thing as yesterday when the sky was blue. Ride ten thousand days and nights 'till ancient suns fall like a singing angel through an open door to you.

Searching through the desert for a shooting star.
Sunlight kissed the golden sand.
Looking all around me just as far as I can, (I'm the) last sould on my land
The other night was yesterday
We're here now and that is meant to stay, Tomorrow's close or is it far?
Will you be what you think you are?

It's just pretending to know better
Last thought I was the only one.
Then the next door we meet
It don't matter what the old folks say
Love came clearing up a cloudy day
Falling, falling, at my feet
If only life could be
So sweet.

My Child

Gordon

My child how can I explain this
My child how can I ease your mind
I just want you to know
That though I cannot stay
In no way am I leaving you behind

My child how can I explain this
My child too young to understand
What goes on between
a father and mother
A human and their lover
A woman and a man

My child I have walked a mile
My child in the shoes
you're wearing now
And I believe in time
You will find your peace of mind
Or at least as much as this world will allow

Lord Raise my child up
Lord be my calming touch

And if she cries for me
in the middle of the night
Send an angel to her bedside
to sing her lullabies
Send an angel to her bedside
to sing her lullabies

When I called my old friend Steve Wedemeyer to tell him I was thinking of recording another album, he said two words. "East Nashville." A few phone calls, a week off from the Band of Heathens, and a 900-mile drive to Tennessee later, I'm looking for Joe McMahan's studio, cradled between the halfway houses and soul food joints of the Nashville underground. Juju beads, tape machines, goat nail shakers, walls of vintage amps, an oil-on-velvet portrait of Freddy Fender above an analog mixing board, a vinyl library of 1950's rock 'n' roll and soul records... Vibe was everywhere. This was the idea behind the sessions. Vibe. No digital undo. No cut and paste. Just people in a room making music. The warmth of analog tape and skin on soul. A soundscape catalog of this crazy ride. Highways, Heathens, Gypsies, Demons, Austin, Kerrville, Sydney, Nashville, Blacktops, Bruises, Vixens, Mud... Here Comes the Flood.

THE VERY BEST OF DOUG

weeper "Real Ole Cajun Me" pungently emphasize the fiddler's Louisiana roots. "Juke Box Songs" romps along with impunity, while Kershaw's remake of Ray Price's 1956 hit "You Done Me Wrong" packs a waltz-time wallop.

There were some unapologetic stabs at placing Doug back on the hit parade. Huey tried him out on pleasing covers of Johnny Nash's reggae/R&B hybrid "Hold Me Tight," a huge '68 crossover hit for Nash (Doug's cover incorporates a slick girlie chorus), and Creedence Clearwater Revival's snarling 1969 smash "Bad Moon Rising." Meaux had been behind the formation of Doug Sahm's Sir Douglas Quintet, producing their '65 Tex-Mex stomp "She's About A Mover;" by the time they waxed their 1969 hit "Mendocino," they were long gone from his talent stable, so perhaps Kershaw's cover was a response to their exit.

The SDQ waxed their second hit "The Rains Came" while reveling in their first concentrated blast of Huey-helmed success. Kershaw does right by it here, the female backing vocalists melodically echoing his teary lament. Sahm penned the saucy "We'll Take Our Last Walk Tonight," and like "The Rains Came," it appeared on the Quintet's debut LP.

A memorable 1969 bow on Johnny Cash's new weekly TV variety show was crucial in making Kershaw a star. Warner Bros. signed the fiddler, and at year's end he opened for Eric Clapton's Derek & the Dominos at Fillmore East. The Cajun Way, his first Warner LP in '69, featured remakes of "Louisiana Man" and a charting version of "Diggy Liggy Lo" alongside fresh material, and it was followed by Spanish Moss in 1970 (revisiting "Cajun Joe" and his RCA-era "Cajun Stripper"), a '71 eponymous set, Swamp Grass and Devil's Elbow in '72, 1973's Douglas James Kershaw, Mama Kershaw's Boy in '74, and Alive and Pickin' in '75.

1976's Ragin' Cajun found Doug revisiting his self-penned "It Takes All Day (To Get Over Night)" from the Meaux era and scoring a #76 C&W hit with it. He closed out his WB tenure with Flip, Flop & Fly in 1977 and a minor hit on a remake of Fats Domino's "I'm Walkin'." Switching over to Scotti Bros., Doug nailed his biggest solo C&W seller in 1981 with "Hello Woman," and he teamed with Hank Williams Jr. in '88 for his first duet hit since his breakup with Rusty, "Cajun Baby," on BGM.

This Cajun's still ragin'!

Injecting a stratospheric energy level into his manic onstage exploits that bordered on the demonic, Doug Kershaw's savage Cajun fiddle sawing and bayou-bred vocals thoroughly startled the rock arena when he began to attract mainstream attention at the close of the 1960s.

"Once bread becomes toast, it can never go back to being bread again."

Pat Lanergan,
Bartender Extraordinaire,
Green Parrot Bar, Key West

OK, I don't know what it means either, but I know it's profound. Kind of like this CD. Please consider this our profound love note to Rockin' Jake Band fans across the country. It contains all our kicked up, high octane numbers that people keep requesting every night. We recorded for four historic nights to a wild, wacked out crowd definitely feelin' the vibe of the world renowned Green Parrot – on New Year's Eve no less. The band was in sync after a national tour and we just kicked it further into raucous, lowdown, drunk and feverish debauchery...well, you know what we're good at. Enjoy! – Rockin' Jake Booklet photos: Lo Dukoff took the photos of Ariana, mom's old photos of Afghanistan in the 60s by ?

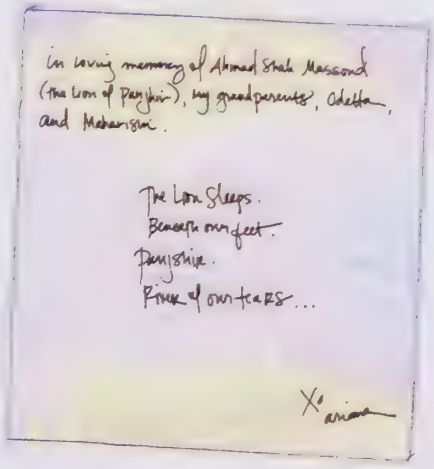
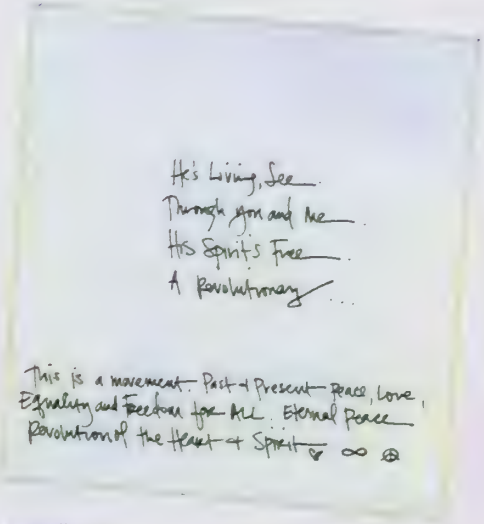
whoever she was hangin' with in the 60s, and current Afghanistan photos by Ariana.
Inside layout and design by: Ariana Delawari





Thank you: Mom and Dad, Yasmine, Soraya and the little ones, Mr. Gulzar, Saad and Tolo TV (thank you so very much for your generosity), Tom Kim (our angel),
Jaweed (aka MacGyver), kaka Hamid, Max (my o.g. partner), Paloma, and Emily for coming on the journey
(and all of their brave families for letting them come), Elliana, our beautiful Ustad friends (what a dream come true),
Tom Kim (our savior), Kam Air, David and Emily Lynch (the Bug and Ladydog) for always believing in me since day one!
And for being a source of incredible inspiration and support, Afghanistan (my beautiful muse),
Leyla, Tiger, Ben and Heartsrevolution, Devendra, Hecuba, Lo Dukoff, the Kolar family, Molly, Lauren,
Paul Beehan and Manimal Vinyl, the Fleischer sisters and Lots of Love, Matthew Johnson and Brad Fisher,
Carlos and Miguel (truly my angels), all of my extended family, Jessica, Neven, Grace and Theo, Nick, Christo,
Beau Raymond Fletcher, Cave Country, Dana and Danielle, Katie, Marouan, James Burton, David Garza, Allakoi, Charlie,
Ben Lee and Ione Sky, Naz Arandi, Joan Zajac, Diana Castle (my mystical mentor),
kk (thank you for teachin me all them Hendrix songs), Mara, Matthew Kaplan, Annakim Violette, Adam and Angeline (cavern),
JD, Patrick Hoelck, Marco, Craig, Robin and Chaim, Jason and Austin, Anna, Mindy, Noriko, Alia and Meckenzie, Alexis,
Julian and Jenee Wasser, Zach, Jabari, Be, everyone who played on/worked on this album- thank you for creating this with me,
Robert Francis, Joachim Cooder, hello stranger and Juliette Comagere, Maximilla, Guy and the entrance band, Jonathan Wilson, Becky Stark and the ladies choir, all of the beautiful artists I'm friends with and have played shows with-
thank you for inspiring me all of the time and for creating such an exciting moment in music.
We have only just begun...

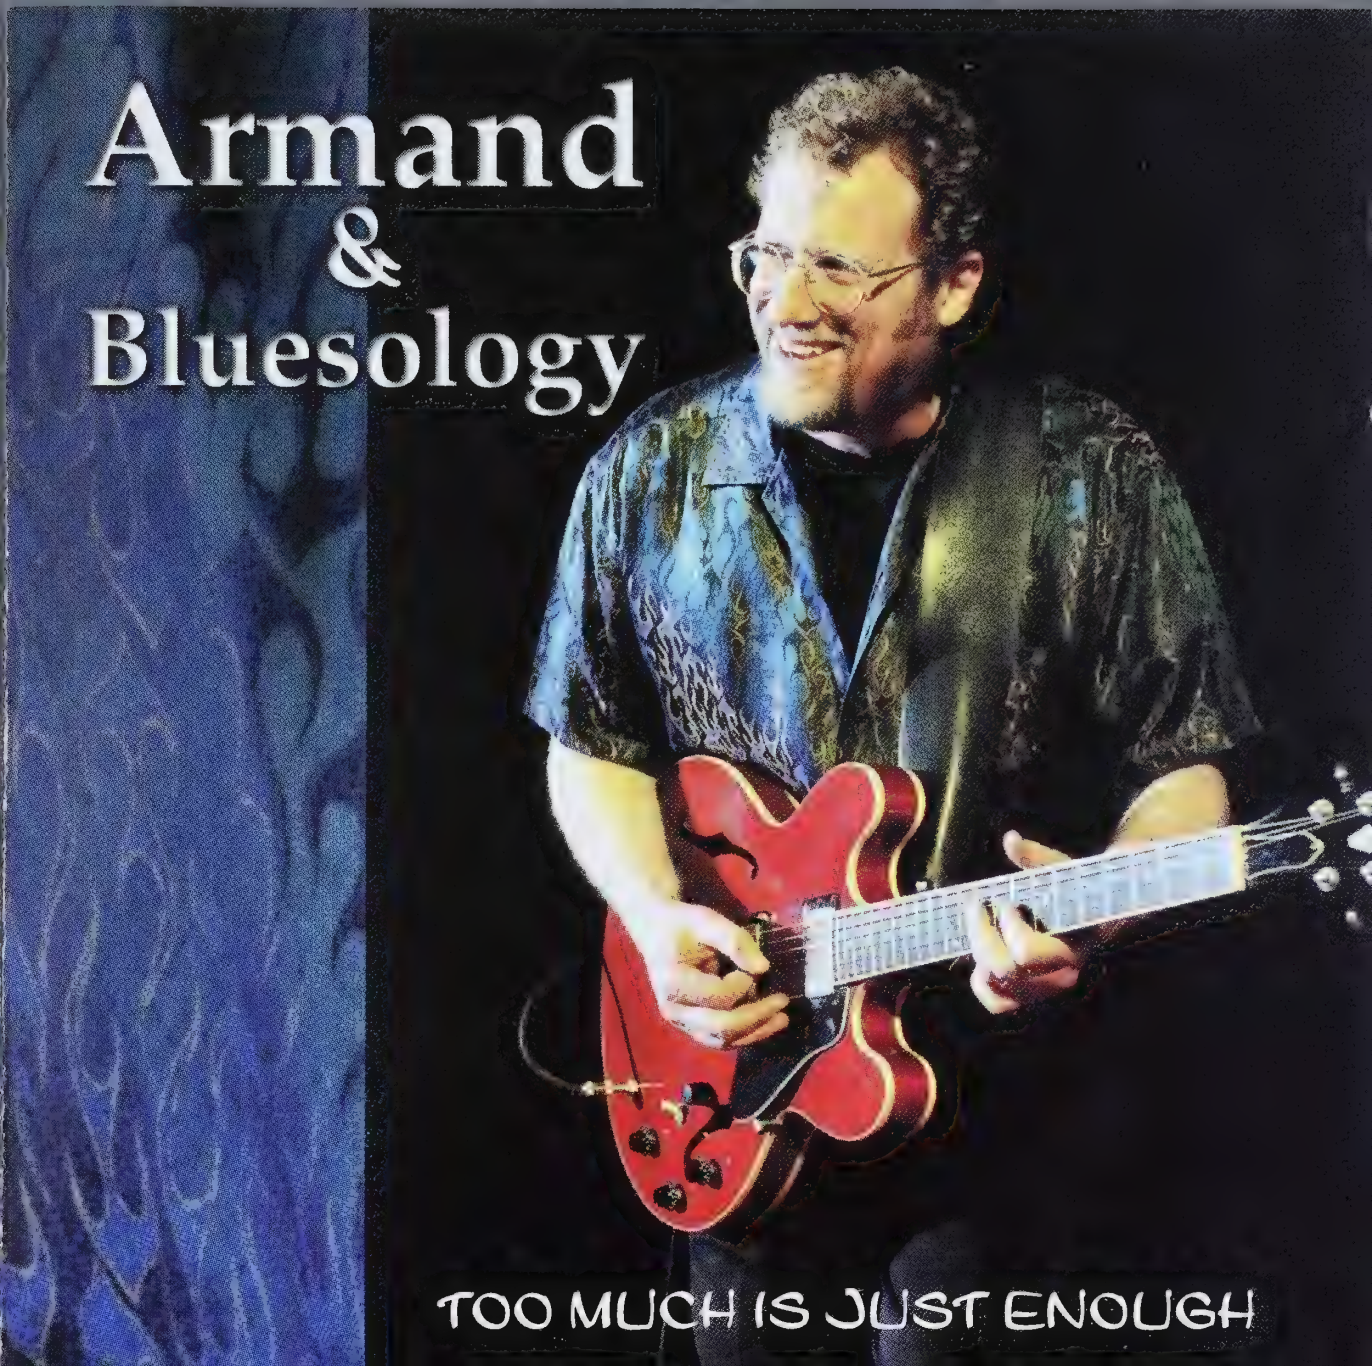
Armand & Bluesology



TOO MUCH IS JUST ENOUGH

I had the good pleasure of sitting in with Armand very soon after I came to North Carolina. Having just moved from Muscle Shoals, Alabama, where I'd spent the last twenty years playing with some world class R&B guys, I didn't really know what to expect. It didn't take but a few bars into the first tune for his live energy to dynamite me out of my safer studio head and into his infectious good time. I knew we'd be friends. He loves what he's doing, and he knows the blues aren't just about sad life--they're about life. He admittedly (as we all do) tips his hat to some of the greats--B.B., Albert, Stevie Ray--I hear some Lonnie Johnson in his ballads, and some Freddie King when he stings it-From the great feeling finger style thing he does on Missin' the Whole Point, to getting a little outside on New Kakalaky Blues, there's a lot going on here.. And he has the confidence, i.e. guts, to go into the studio three piece and honestly hang himself out there. I think he captures a lot of who he is musically on this cd. Pick it up--put in on--turn it up--and catch him when he's nearby. Enjoy.

THE FOUNDLING

an album by

Mary Gauthier

I WAS BORN to an unwed mother in 1962 and subsequently surrendered to St. Vincent's Women and Infants Asylum on Magazine Street in New Orleans, where I spent my first year. I was adopted shortly thereafter but left my adopted family at fifteen. I wandered for years looking for, but never quite finding a place that felt like home. I searched for, found, and was denied a meeting with my birth mother when I was 45 years old. She couldn't afford to re-open the wound she'd carried her whole life, the wound of surrendering a baby.

THE FOUNDLING is my story.

Righteous Vampires

The Band:
Motilue (Jeff Owen Lewis) - lead vocals, backing vocals, rhythm guitar
Louise Lewis - lead vocals, backing vocals
Jeff Simon - real & imagined instruments, backing vocals
Sabrina, Natasha, & Richard Lewis - backing vocals on "Righteous Vampires"
Steve Lait - classical guitar on "How Can I Ask For More?"
Butch Taylor - acoustic & lead guitars on "It's up to You"

Charles Jenna Grant - Guitars, backing vocals
Karl Kasinoff - bass
Mike & Phil - drums, percussion

Special thanks to Wisey for putting up with my bad attitude over the years, to Jeff Simon for being such a great guy burning the midnight oil while munching on Subway cookies and coffee in the wee hours of the night, and to Charles (Jenna) for being there for many years through all the good and bad times mapping out the dream on Blueberry Hill (Devon). Also, special thanks to all those who believe in the dream.

I dedicate this album to Mama and Papa and most of all to the Great One who dwells on Mt. Zion.

The portrait of the artist as a survivor has had a number of unsavory aspects — so often the result of the harsh conditions under which he has had to make his music. But Julian "Cannonball" Adderley was one musician whose nurturing, stylish world perfectly echoed the boisterous, healthy soul that he was.

Adderley came to New York shortly after Charlie Parker died and within a few years had joined Miles Davis's legendary sextet which also included John Coltrane.

But Adderley's first career had been as a public school teacher, and so he needed to return to leading by instinct. He formed his own distinctive quintet with his brother Nat, which enjoyed nearly two decades of great artistic and popular success. Having incorporated all of the most modern technical innovations, his saxophone style remained reassuring — but without ever becoming predictable.

THE BEST OF JACKIE McLEAN

PRESTIGE PRCD-5709-2

THESE 1956-1957 RECORDINGS BY ALTO GIANT JACKIE McLEAN find one of Charlie Parker's heirs apparent moving out from under Bird's shadow to find his own personal means of expression. McLean's acidic tone and blunt rhythmic attack are heard in a quartet setting on a blues and four standards, where he is accompanied by pianist Mal Waldron (an associate from his tenure with Charles Mingus); and there are also samples of collaborations with two of his favorite trumpeters, Donald Byrd and Bill Hardman, as well as an alto battle with John Jenkins that reveals how quickly McLean himself had become an influence on the instrument.

1 STRANGE BLUES 7:32 2 MIRAGE 9:47 3 EMBRACEABLE YOU 7:05

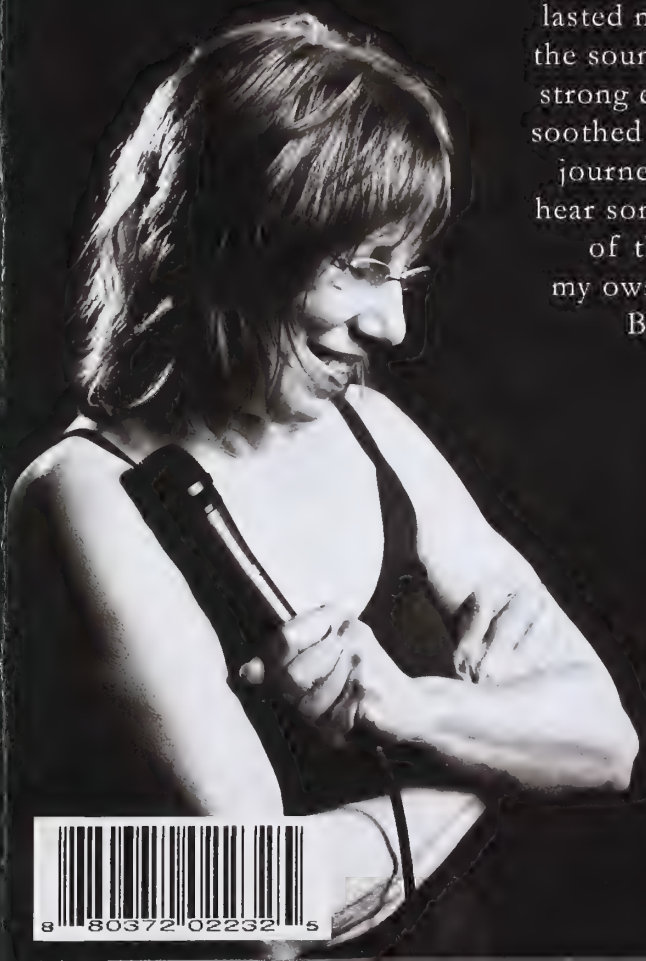
Sonya Perkins ...and you linger...



*...and you linger...*is about my love affair with vocal jazz. It began long ago, has lasted many years and still lingers on. I love the sound of jazz tones and a lyric that tells a strong emotional story. I feel connected and soothed by it. As you join me on my personal journey through these songs, I hope you'll hear something new as well as traces of some of the artists whose music has shaped my own...Shirley Horn, Billie Holiday, Chet Baker, Anita O'Day, Andy Bey...

THE FAMILY CURSE "WHITE MEDICINE"

Start with tracks: 8, 1, 4, 6

RIYL: Butthole Surfers, The Jesus Lizard, Godflesh, Big Black, YYYs, Pain Teens

Brain-damaging beats, shrieking guitars and the screams and moans of a grateful, cult-bound abductee. Who or what can hope to possibly deflect the pure ill fury that features the shrieking sex of Megan Tweed's vocals and the bleeding fingers guitar cancer of Marc Tweed and Jeff Doom!

(THE GOOD FEAR)

THE GOOD FEAR

NEXT TIME I PLAY CARNEGIE HALL

CREDITS

Surviving childhood locked in my room with record player, assorted albums, and stacks of 45's, was like holeing up in a bunker waiting for the bombs to stop falling. One album, "The Old Philosophy" by veteran funny man Eddie Lawrence, kept me in hernia-popping hysterics through those gloomy times of self-doubt, fear, and disillusionment. His silly, intellectual wit was paramount compared to the one-liner comedians of his time. This collection is dedicated to him for literally saving my life. "I Want My Own Room" goes out to Ambrose and his girlfriend, that great record of a man and his woman walking in the subway tunnels in the mid-1950's. Heartfelt appreciation to Everett Lowe, my friend and benefactor.

Produced by Charlie McCoy and Chris Gantry
Executive Producer: Everett Lowe

Engineered by Collin Peterson on Sony JH-24

Chris Gantry has written over 1,000 songs, including collaborations with such luminaries as Kris Kristofferson, Mel Tillis, Shel Silverstein, and Eddie Rabbit. His songs have been recorded by Johnny Cash, Glen Campbell, Reba McEntire, Roy Clark, Robert Goulet, Waye Newton, and many others. His "Dreams of the Everyday Housewife" won the Nashville Songwriter Award, three MMI awards, and the Millionaire's Award for over two million performances; it was also recently featured on the Desperate Housewives soundtrack.

A truly special compilation, THE INNER FLAME brings an accomplished - and remarkably diverse - group of talents together to acknowledge the inspirational work of cult blues artist Rainer Ptacek. As eclectic as it is fascinating, the album is highlighted by all-new recordings from such top artists as Page & Plant, Emmylou Harris, PJ Harvey & Jon Parrish, Madeleine Peyroux and Victoria Williams.

THE BAND - TO KINGDOM COME

ROBBIE ROBERTSON INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

1. Would you say the Band's musical style changed much from working with Ronnie Hawkins to working with Bob Dylan?
2. Didn't The Band tour with Bob Dylan during his transition from acoustic to electric when the audiences were booing him?
3. You've been writing from an early age, haven't you . . . even before you hooked up with Ronnie Hawkins?
4. The Band's first album on its own was "Music From Big Pink". Wasn't some of it recorded in New York, and some in L.A.?
5. One of the songs from "Big Pink" was "The Weight". Wasn't that inspired by the Spanish film maker Luis Bunuel?
6. A lot of the songs you write either are historical or seem that way. Did you do a lot of reading about the past to write those songs?
7. With the songs you wrote for The Band, how did you decide which of the guys would sing lead?
8. Obviously the southern United States was the inspiration for "The Night They Drove Old Dixie Down".
9. The Band's second album was originally not going to be called "The Band", but wasn't there some confusion about the groups name?
10. What came after "The Band" album?
11. The "Rock Of Ages" album was recorded live in New York City over three nights. How did that album come about?
12. "Up On Cripple Creek" was The Band's first Top 40 hit. Were you excited by having a "hit record"?
13. For the "Moondog Matinee" album, did each of you decide which classic rock songs you were going to do?
14. How did you come to write "Acadian Driftwood"?
15. Being inducted into the Juno Hall of Fame this year, how did you feel?
16. What are your feelings about this new Band collection, "To Kingdom Come"?

Capitol RECORDS NASHVILLE

PLEASE SEE REVERSE FOR CONDITIONS OF USE.

Capitol Records Nashville supplies pre-release copies of its recordings to newspapers, magazines and other media for the purposes of pre-awareness. These pre-release copies contain encryption to enable us to trace any unauthorized use of these recordings in breach of our intellectual property rights.

Through the encryption process, we have discovered that recent pre-release copies of some of our recordings were uploaded onto P2P Internet services (peer to peer file sharing services) that unlawfully trade in unauthorized distribution of recordings. This uploading and the subsequent file-sharing blatantly infringes our intellectual property rights, and damages the legitimate economic interests of the artists, Capitol Records Nashville and the music publishers/songwriters.

You should be aware that we are carefully monitoring the use of our pre-release copies by their recipients, including use by journalists and publishers who should be sensitive towards intellectual property rights since they derive a living from the creativity and investment that these rights protect and stimulate.

Any promotional (pre-release) CDs that we supply to our media contacts are supplied in the strictest confidence and solely for the purpose of pre-awareness. They are supplied on the condition that they may not be sold, altered, transferred or copied in any way (including, without limitation, by CD burning or uploading to the Internet). You will be held liable and responsible for any unauthorized use of the relevant recordings, whether undertaken by you or by any third party to whom you supply the recordings (such supply itself being a breach of these terms). Accordingly you are responsible for ensuring that pre-release CDs do not pass into the possession of any third parties.

If you are not prepared to accept the terms set out in this letter you should immediately return any pre-release CDs that have been supplied to you and notify us of your rejection. Capitol Records Nashville will reimburse your reasonable costs of returning the CDs in question and remove you from our mailing list.

Capitol Records Nashville views all infringements of its rights extremely seriously and we fully reserve our rights to bring legal proceedings to enforce our rights. If you have any questions regarding the contents of this letter do not hesitate to contact Capitol Records Nashville regional head of anti-piracy. The person who sent this advance to you will be able to give you that person's contact details.

Capitol Records Nashville employees should adhere to the existing company policy regarding the protection of this advance.

HOW TO PEEP THE DEADLY COMETH VIDEO...

Windows 95/98/NT:

If QuickTime is installed and autoplay is enabled on your CD-ROM drive, the video will automatically play. If the video doesn't automatically play, double click the "My Computer" icon on your desktop. Double click the icon for your CD-ROM drive (usually D: or E:, it will have a Sprite icon). The video will automatically play. If the video does not play, but you see the Sprite player and receive a black screen or an X in the video window, you need to install QuickTime. To install QuickTime from the CD, right click the Sprite CD icon, choose Explore and double click the file "QuickTime30" on the CD. After QuickTime has installed, double click the CD again to play the video.

Macintosh:

Double click the file "Click Me" to play the video. If the video does not play, you need to install QuickTime. Run the installer located in the QuickTime folder on the CD.

If the Sprite video player screen launches, but all you get is a black screen when you hit play, QuickTime is not installed on your computer. Install QuickTime following the above instructions. After QuickTime is installed, the video will play.

If the video plays without sound or is very choppy, your computer isn't powerful enough to run the video. Buy a new computer or borrow a friend's.

UBIQUITY RECORDS PRESENTS

THE CLONIOUS: BETWEEN THE DOTS

FOR INFORMATION AND SOUNDCLIPS OF OUR TITLES, GO TO WWW.UBIQUITYRECORDS.COM/PRESS STREET DATE: 10/13/2009

Somewhere between the past and the distant future, sparked by dusty old jazz records and beat generation hip hop, at the sonic cross-roads of Detroit and Vienna, lies a series of sound stories steeping in the head of 23 year old beat navigator Paul Movahedi, also known as The Clonious.

The Adroit Adventures EP, released on Ubiquity in June, was the first of those tales to exit his dome and hit limited edition wax. It was immediately picked up by the likes of Mary Anne Hobbs (who aired a Clonious mixtape the week of it's release) and Bengie B on BBC Radio. DJs from Helskinki to Tokyo to New York also gave thumbs up to his unique blend of bouncy cosmic vibes and glitchy shoegazer funk. On Between The Dots his debut album, Movehadi continues his development of sounds that are at once new and classic, soulful and striking, organic and electronic.

"If a regular hip-hop head and the biggest IDM nerd both find a track on the album that they like, it would make me happy," says Movahedi. "The album is the sum of what I like. The tracks are little adventures that just want to say hello," he adds.

While "Fogged Spacesuit," the ideal tune for astronauts on a spacewalk, and the outerworldly soul of "One At A Time," (featuring Muhsinah, and remixed for the album) swell and bump, tracks like "Emora" are more angular and to the point, building around a focussed theme. Keeping the beats edgy, Movahedi lets the jazz and improv fly between the dots on "If Joe Had The Power," and even more on the short "Agenda" and "Hang On." There's a Herbert-like warmth to the cut n'paste style of the more uptempo "Bugs N'Fools" and "Leaving Belief" should please the ears of Jazzanova and Atjazz fans with their floor friendly beats.

"I don't really care how people explain my music. You will most definitely find references to others, and that's cool with me," says Movahedi. "You can't invent the wheel a second time. It's about your mix of influences, and with every record I have ever listened to I inhaled a piece of the world. Searching in the past always felt like looking in the future for me. The past and the future have the unknown in common - and I hope I also captured "the jazz" that make this music timeless," says Movahedi.

Other guests on the album include Dorian Concept and Cid Rim, with whom Movahedi frequently collaborates. And Los Angeles-based Georgia Anne Muldrow and partner Dudley Perkins round out the collabs, injecting some of their own brand of West Coast fonk.

"I hope to achieve that fine balance between a superficial forcefulness and a striking deepness. I come from a musical background that is heavily influenced by the jazz era of the late 1950s and 1960s. But a big part of my sound is sampling. Everything I record or produce eventually ends up in a sampler. As I see it the art of sampling comes close to a cloning process. So add my love for sampling with my love for old jazz records and the name The Clonious makes sense...I guess!" he adds.

Born in Chicago…raised on the South Side…strains of Muddy, Hound Dog, Wolf in the air. Sometimes when that Blues Stew gets to bubbling it spits out somebody who can't be easily classified, a person that doesn't sound like anybody else.

A genuine Bluesman.

That's Paul. I've seen him play a mess of times over the last 20 years. Wherever it's been has been pretty much transformed into a Roadhouse by the time he was done. And anyone in the crowd who wasn't particularly a Blues lover is converted.

Paul is not a jazz or rock musician who has turned to the blues because it's the "in" thing. It's in him, has been for years and he's got to let it out. A great guy as well as a great songwriter and player, he's always been able to attract the best musicians to back him up on his recordings. The disc you now hold in your hands is no exception.

When you listen to this recording for the first time you might as well invite the neighbors. You're going to want to crank it, so they'll end up hearing it anyway. Besides, you can make them bring the beer.

Enjoy!

"Now there's a new way to shake the blues, and it's right here in the music of Pete Gumbo & Zydeco-A-Go-Go . . . right here on the band's newest release. What else can make you forget all your worldly cares, dissolve all your tension and allow you to truly Let The Good Times Roll? This band is practically guaranteed to get you up on your feet and coax you into the relaxing yet, rhythmic dances of down-home Zydeco music.

For many years now, Zydeco-a-Go-Go's music has been mesmerizing audiences all over the East Coast with the steady beat and joyous dance tunes that have deep roots in the Creole tradition of French-speaking Louisiana. I have had first-hand experience watching this band captivate audiences with it's uninhibited enthusiasm and sheer musical talent. And believe me, few bands in the East can capture the real Zydeco flavor the way Zydeco-a-Go-Go can.

Take this album home. You gotta love it!"

WILLIE AND ME

I APPROACH THE SITUATION WITH MUCH TREPIDATION, FOR AS I WALK ON THE STAGE, THERE IS A BARN FULL OF CHROME AND STEEL MICROPHONES, AMPLIFIERS AND ABOUT A THOUSAND MILES OF WIRE. THE AUDIENCE IS THREE FEET AWAY, BOXING US IN, BUT WITH FRIENDLY FACES. WE PICK, YET WE KNOW NOT WHAT WE PICK. NO PLANNED PROGRAM. SWAPPING SONGS FROM OUT OF THE BACK OF OUR HEADS. JUST LIKE A GUITAR PULL AT MY HOUSE. HE LOOKS AT ME AND SEES THAT I AM WATCHING HIM. NOW HE'S WATCHING ME. I THINK HE KNOWS I MADE A WRONG CHORD. HE GETS OVER IT. WE GET INTO A SONG THAT FEELS GOOD, WILLIE AND ME. I WATCH WILLIE'S HANDS AS HE TAKES A GUITAR LEAD. HE PLOWS INTO A NOTE AND, AT THE SAME TIME, THERE IS A SLIGHT GRIMACE ON HIS FACE, AS IF IT MIGHT HURT JUST A LITTLE BIT. AS HE PULLS THE NOTE OFF, HE GRITS HIS TEETH. I'VE SEEN HANDS LIKE THAT IN THE COTTON FIELDS. ROUGH. GNARLY. DEXTROUS. DETERMINED. PRECISE. CONCISE. FASCINATING. THAT SAID, HOW ABOUT GREED, LUST. ANGER. SLOTH. GLUTTONY. ENVY. PRIDE. THE SEVEN DEADLY SINS. BUT NONE OF THEM COMMITTED HERE TONIGHT, EXCEPT MAYBE ENVY ON MY PART.

Einer der besten Tage in den letzten Jahren war für mich, als ich die Band bei einem Cajun- und Zydeco-Festival 1995 in Koblenz zum ersten Mal sah und hörte - ich bin ja ein hartgesottener Typ, habe Gott und die Welt gehört auf beiden Seiten des Teiches, besonders aber in den Zydeco-Schuppen Louisianas, in den Roadhouse-Clubs von Mississippi, in allen denkbaren Bars und Kneipen zwischen New Orleans und Chicago. Ich habe mit Little Feat im Peabody-Hotel in Memphis die Enten gezählt und in Boozoo Chavis' Band in Lake Charles geschrubbt, habe die ersten Zydeco Bands ins verrockte Deutschland gebracht und Dr. John und Zachary Richard veranstaltet - und dann werfen mich diese kölschen Jungs mit ihrer gelebten Gute-Laune-Musik aus dem Sattel! Spielen dieses bediente Südstaatenzeug, als hätten sie im Delta die Brust bekommen, covern frisch und fröhlich Songs von Dr. John und Little Feat, von Chenier und Richard, daß einem der Steigbügel schwingt und die Seele kocht.

Zum ersten mal habe ich „Come Together" so gehört, wie es die Beatles hätten spielen sollen, und DeVilles „Bamboo Road" (hab' ich nie gern gehört) läuft mir in die Ohren wie Mint Julep in die Kehle. Apropos: Das „Filé Gumbo", das Swamp Attack hier auf großer Flamme kocht, hat genau die Zutat, die man bei den meisten Gumbos vermißt, nämlich jenes Filé (ein weißes Gewürzpulver), das hier kein Mensch zu kriegen weiß geschweige denn zu spielen versteht. Zu meinen anderen Lieblingssongs dieser CD gehören „Uncle Bud" - Boozoo, hör' Dir Deinen Song an! Und Zachs „Congo Square", Feats „Rad Gumbo" und „Zydeco Party" (so wie ihr in Koblenz von der Zydeco Party Band begeistert wart, war ich von euch und noch einen oben drauf!). Einen vergessen? Auf einmal schmecken mir auch „Peanuts 'n Beer". Wenn ich nur MEHR DAVON bekäme! Mehr von dieser geballten Südstaatenladung, pur, unverwässert, mit allem Feeling, mit der ganzen Power. Aber - mehr solls nicht geben! Keine rockigen Soli, keinen schweißtreibenden, funkig-faszinierenden Beat der Second Line von N'Awlins, mit dem sie in geschickt eingefädelter Regie auf der Bühne den Klangrausch gesteigert haben, der absolut nicht fürs lauschige Eckchen geeignet ist (war). Und die Vielfalt des Repertoires, das auf die großzügige Besetzung zurückzuführen ist! Ich werde die gut funktionierenden Stimmbänder ebenso vermissen wie die gekonnte clowneske Lässigkeit, die Faszination der harten Rhythmen, Heiners funkiges Boogie Piano, Franks fröhliche Quetsche, Guidos Saiten-Akrobatik, den quirligen Andreas und seine Sprünge hoch an Franks Mikro und Guidos (der andere) soliden Beat. Es ist ein Jammer! Sie koch(t)en ein neues musikalisches Gumbo, das sie mit vielen edlen Zutaten garnier(t)en, mit traditioneller Louisiana Musik, Reggae, Rock und Funk. Dr. John hätte sie „Tricknologists" und „Mujicians" genannt, deren Südstaaten-Gumbo in ihren Gehirnen brennt, aber keine Löcher in ihre Seelen. Jetzt suche ich Anschluß an eine Selbsthilfegruppe für Peanuts 'n Beer-Süchtige!

MLO RECORDS
FOR PROMOTIONAL
USE ONLY

Lillian Lilly – the first solo recording artist to break out from the world's No. 1 Mississippi Mass Choir – makes her stunning debut with Gotta Have Faith.

If you know the Mississippi Mass Choir's megahit It's Good To Know Jesus, then you already know Lillian Lilly. As principal soloist for the currently Grammy-nominated choir, she sang on all five of its wildly successful albums and also sang lead on its hits I Just Can't Tell You, Holy City, There Is None Like Him and, of course, It's Good To Know Jesus.

Gotta Have Faith now showcases the powerful voice that rose from the rank and file of the 150-member Mississippi Mass to become a premiere soloist on album after album.

Gotta Have Faith nurtures and showcases Lillian's talent with such ideally suited gospel songs as the spirited title cut, the thought-provoking Did You Stop To Pray and the rousing Have You Received The Holy Ghost. The soaring title cut is the CDs first single. Lillian also conquers two-masterworks – the worshipful Not By Power and the gripping There Is Always Hope.

Lillian's ability inspires allegiance. Gotta Have Faith was produced by Malaco recording stars Dorothy Norwood and Jerry Smith and Mass Choir/Malaco gospel director Jerry Mannery. Guest vocalists on Gotta Have Faith include Norwood – who is a current Grammy nominee and a three-time 1996-97 Stellar nominee – and the Rev. James Moore, who was guest soloist on the mass choir's No. 1 Live album.

"Lillian's talent is exceeded only by her spirit," Norwood said of choosing to produce Lillian.

A native Mississipian, Lillian was an original member of the Mississippi Mass Choir and a key in all three of its No. 1 albums.

We gotta – and do – have faith that Lillian's solo disc will rise to that familiar top spot.

File this under Blues. That's what we play. 3-4 nights a week. More if you want to hire us. We like to play all types of blues and we've learned more than a few things from backing up some of the originators of this music. We're gonna keep it simple. Thanks for listening and we'll see you where the blues are played.

so long - The body pulls the mind to hell and don't forget that they will judge you don't get me wrong
it's not a god it's this world I'm thinking of and when you wake up and can't stop shaking decisions
well they make no sense so don't get out of bed it's not your head it's this world I'm thinking of the cars
the shoes you're looking good the compliments the confidence it doesn't mean shit so just sit back
and let your body handle it the things they do they seem untrue you'll never be what you want to don't get me wrong its not your fault it's what you get from your results you lost the ones you found it's been so long it's been so long go back home and go to sleep again you walk the streets and blur your site and
then you'll see the yellow lights the cars at night the creeps the dogs the broken kites the smiles the screams remembered things the clothes you where when you are there looking! looking! Who are you fooling don't ever
try they will eat you alive innocence say goodbye say goodbye

oh, bessy! Bessy what's on your mind can it be that things are need that things are fine family where are you what hurts me will surely hurt you too daytime it's coming up something is bound for you and me and what it is I don't know we'll have to wait and see thaddeus he comes and goes he thinks I'm great he told me so last I saw he was very tall and he grew a beard oh boy you're growing older by the second your head is filled with sentimental recollections they don't have the answers to your questions
they don't have bessy I dream of you of condensation 2 by 2 a great big ocean as wide as the eye can see maybe one day
you'll marry me

chop the tree I want to chop the tree carry the wood and burn the leaves and when the job is done this old boy will have
had his fun hello hello hollow tree I've come to read your eulogy I want to plant and sow and make my garden
grow and if my garden dies well then this old boy will have feared no flies so long so long sleepy bear I'll turn your bed into a chair the last I saw she was at the station 43 bags for only a weeks vacation if I see her again it will be the end
i love you - I love you I love you I love you I love you oh I love you I love you I love you I love you 'cause I've come to and I slipped through when I met you and I'll jump high it's my last try and I won't lie and I won't cry 'cause I'll fake it through this shit I won't quit forget it I'll admit just one bit just don't let just don't let just don't ever let me lie in my bed because the things that I've done and said they will break me just don't let me contemplate my mistakes because my eyes will go blank
and stare and I wont care I love you

wake - I woke up early this morning but my eyes didn't know what to do my girlfriends lying on the bathroom floor and she's turning blue we're late again and it's time to go this isn't working and
it doesn't fit my girlfriend stayed out all night she said "The day was too bright" She don't get it my love she sits and looks into the mirror till she finds love and when she sees it she gets flustered
and she goes blind she looks so glorious glorious I woke up early this morning and the lamp and
the fan were on fire I tried to get some cold water but the flames well they flamed higher and higher
we're late again and it's time to go this isn't working and it doesn't fit I've been having difficulties
from making dinner to asking for help please my love she sits and looks into the mirror till she finds
love and when she sees it she's disgusted and she goes blind she looks so glorious glorious it makes me cry it was about time you left me I'll come alive today

mercy mercy pudding pie I'm only looking for you through the alleyway and the shiny shoe remember how things ought to be with a cat
on the bed and the gravy on the meat but I used to think romantic thoughts of other girls and I'd go outside when
the rain came down so I swim like a fish to your door and I knock! knock! and fix my hair like it was before well
I've waited all night at the bar because I wanna be drunk when I find out where you are I spent all my money on stupid things so I couldn't buy the nice thing inside the house there's a party and the shadows make like monkeys
on the wall I see a girl who looks just like you but when she turns there's no resemblance at all oh baby pretty baby how I loved you so and just how much you'll never know so it sounds like a party but I'm spitting in the air and the telephone it aint ringing because I've got nobody to care "so he drinks like a donkey and he talks like a monkey" because my mind is cheap and my lip is dumb and I got shit all in my mind and candy in my mouth so when I walk, OH! I walk alone in that room is where I'll be settled like dust in a fancy new seat dressed like a business man but not busy at all we're gonna hit the top we're gonna break the fall yeah yeah

de you

l what you do,
how you break through
world is our puzzle,
We are the glue
Whole thing depends on what you
d like it to do

e's no one else to blame
re one and of the same
t get yourself caught in the blaming
e

l what you do
how you break through
world is our puzzle,
We are the glue
Vhole thing depends on what you
d like it to do

nore blaming yourself or the other
trust in your sister and trust in your
ıer

CE

e it comes
n you're on your own
ss you learn,
will you know?
you'll be fine
natter what seems true
e you know
t you want to do
re READY

le older now,

And you've found your place
And you're hoping to remain in a
SACRED PLACE
Where you'll invite
Someone inside
Open up and LOVE
and take the ride
You're READY
Are you READY?

Open up when you think you can't open
up,
And you will see the BEAUTY OF IT
ALL
everything

Sometimes you think
What might have been
Keeps you awake
Belief in SIN
When it only means
You've missed your mark
At any point,
A flash can spark
You're READY

Open up where you think you can't open
up
And you will see the BEAUTY OF IT
ALL,
The BEAUTY OF IT ALL is in EVERYTHING

Over saturated, misunderstood
Hidden away told its for your own good Knees to your chest OK, I'll play your
Prepare for the Crash, Prepare to Go
INSANE

Ooooooooh, what will you do?

Don't want to see
Its what you want
Don't want to know
So don't believe
Don't want to care
And you won't find it
And you won't know it
When it comes

The years flow by
And you've done it well,
You're near the end,
and you can tell
Got no regrets
Never missed your chance
Now shake your bones,
and DO YOUR DANCE
You're READY!
Are you READY?

Open up when you think you can't
And you will see that everything's inside
of
WHATS IN FRONT OF YOU
When we love one another then we find it
(GRACE)
Won't you help me find it now?

RUSS & Friends
Follow Your Dreams

Russell Batiste has a personality and style of drumming so lively and unique that it truly reflects the spirit of his native New Orleans home. When you hear that dirty, syncopated backbeat lock into a groove you know it could only be one man: Russell Batiste. From a heralded bloodline of the Crescent City music community, Batiste rides the rhythms of his family and his city to new levels of playing, blending the old school styles with the new and creating a sound that is all his own. Pure Batiste funk. This album features an incredible eclectic mix of artists and styles from New Orleans and beyond. So get with it and hear what it is Russell's got to say. For now, from Orleans, it's...

RUSSELL BATISTE & FRIENDS are...

Russell Batiste Jr...Drums & Vocal & Percussion & Keyboard
Sazo Shibayama...Guitar
Philip Breen...Keyboard & Crowd Noize
Chris Spies...Synthesizer & Electric Piano & Keyboard
Kensuke "Kenny Kane" Yamamoto...Bass

BLUE AIN'T HOW I FEEL

denise marie

Blue ain't how I feel, it's a couple shades darker
than any real blues feel
and the darkness in my mind
only feeds the emptiness in my heart
dragging down my soul till I fall apart
I guess I just don't understand
how one man can make me feel this way
he's got his own life he's living
while mine's just falling to ruin
dragging down my soul till I fall apart
I wish I'd just forget about him
so I could go on with my life
but at the same time I'm wishing
he'd come back and make everything alright
but oh I know that just won't happen tonight

guitar and vocals - denise marie.
tenor saxaphone - william terry. bass - james singleton. drums - johnny vidacovich

I'M COMING HOME

denise marie

Don't worry baby I'm coming home
been a long time on the road
spent a long time on my own
Long nights and lonely days
make certain things so clear
when you have a love that's true
why look for someone new
I'm coming home, back where I belong
in your loving arms where it's safe and warm
I'm coming home
Well go on and chase the rainbow
and maybe someday find that pot of gold
I've been searching such a long time
Only to find you were right here all of this time.

drums - johnny vidacovich. bass - james singleton.
guitar and vocals - denise marie.
accordion - bart ramsey

denise marie

I promised myself I wouldn't think about you today
I didn't need no help till the sun went away
then down came the tears and out came the pain
I miss you my dear more and more every day
I can make it alright if I sing a song
Yeah, I know I'll get by if I just hang on Till the morning comes and that blue sky makes me strong
but watch that evening sun turn me blind and make me fall
turn me blind and make me fall
I fall back in love with you every time the sun goes down
I just want to be loving you when the evening rolls around
well I can drink I can play I can stay out late
but not a night goes by when I don't feel this ache
I fall back in love with you every day
I keep telling myself "girl, you're living a lie"
but I'm under a spell, yeah, I'm spellbound and tied Everyone I know thinks I've really lost my mind
well, I guess that must be so, I won't even try to deny it
I won't even try to deny it.

guitar, vocals - denise marie. piano - bart ramsey.
bass - james singleton. drums - johnny vidacovich

SHE DANCES LIKE A HOOKER

denise marie

Down here on my own I'm doing solitary time
Yeah, it's a one-woman show
His long black hair still stays on my mind
I met this Indian man back in new mexico, he
said, "I really like the way you play."
He grabbed me off the stage and
spun me all around the floor
and laughing I heard him say
"She dances like a hooker
She dances like a hooker
Ooh, hillbilly girl, you got some moves
You dance like a hooker."
Just as predicted I fell
Yeah, jump right in and later on
you can learn how to swim
I wonder if he could tell that more than anything
I wanted a friend
He said, "I really like you princess pale-moon"
But I couldn't hide my white skin
"You're too white, too bright, but we'll
just turn out the light and try
that double-dip,
side-swoop again."
Down here on my own
I'm doing solitary time
Yeah, it's a one-woman show
Well they say freedom is a
state of mind
Now being tied to the
wagon wheel
boy it sure is a bumpy ride
well, I suspect I made you feel
and that's not what you're
after tonight.

bass - james singleton

"Bill Lupkin has been in the thick of Chicago Blues for more than 38 years & still gets one of the best tones in the Blues Biz. If you don't believe me, check this CD out for yourself." –Mark Hummel

"In the Chicago blues harp club, Bill Lupkin has the chops, the tone, the attitude and the dues paid in full for Real Deal status. Enjoy this all-original program and stellar ensemble work, and be glad the music's past is still its present and future, and in good hands!" –Dick Shurman

Frank just phoned and said this is the last thing he's waiting for so I have to get it down quick: we moved into Willem's studio for ten days to record the songs onto the 16 track tape in the living room; we did vocals and birds in the kitchen, the horn section on the landing, put Albert's amp in one bedroom and the leslie speaker in the other, but this woman comes storming round saying she doesn't mind the loud blues guitar but stop that distorted organ immediately, so we mix it all down onto a really touchy dat machine, and Willem says if the smoke, whiskey and pizzas don't kill him, the bad jokes will.

Spanner Banner has been one of the island's top singers and performers since his first Jamaican #1, "Life Goes On." Now he teams up with dancehall's top current stars including Sean Paul, Lady Saw, Chaka Demus & Pliers, Richie Spice, and many more, for a modern mix of dancehall, r&b, and lover's rock. Heavyweight producers including Sly & Robbie, Jeremy Harding, and Clive Hunt create the hit-filled powerhouse selections that make up Real Love. Spanner Banner is a naturally smooth and sophisticated singer from the musically rich Bonner family, which includes his brothers, Pliers (of Chaka Demus & Pliers fame), and new hitmaker Richie Spice. Real Love collects new Jamaican singles and other recent, choice cuts from Spanner's catalog, including a brand new re-working of "Life Goes On." All tracks recorded with top Jamaican musicians.

There are three figures represented in the Chart, which we will refer to as the upper figure, the middle figure, and the lower figure. The upper figure is the I AM Presence, the I AM THAT I AM, the individualization of God's presence for every son and daughter of the Most High. The Divine Monad consists of the I AM Presence surrounded by the spheres (color rings) of light which comprise the causal body. This is the body of First Cause that contains within it man's "treasure laid up in heaven."

The middle figure in the Chart is the Mediator between God and man, called the Holy Christ Self, the Real Self, or the Christ consciousness. The lower figure is surrounded by a tube of light, which is projected from the heart of the I AM Presence in answer to your call. It is a cylinder of white light which sustains a forcefield of protection 24 hours a day, so long as you guard it in harmony. It is also invoked daily with the "Heart, Head, and Hand Decrees" and may be reinforced as needed.

The threefold flame of Life is the divine spark sent from the I AM Presence as the gift of life, consciousness, and free will. It is sealed in the secret chamber of the heart that through the Love, Wisdom and Power of the Godhead anchored therein the soul may fulfill her reason for being in the physical plane. Also called the Christ flame and the liberty flame, or fleur-de-lis, it is the spark of a man's Divinity, his potential for Christhood.

"Morris pioneers an innovative blues style on this recording. John Morris clearly feels the blues."

- Leslie Ann Knight, Monday Morning Blues, KKUP-FM Cupertino Ca

". . . the kind of inventive, distinctive player that can tear up a tavern and is musically compelling enough to engage a larger concert audience."

- Tom Miller, promoter, Santa Cruz Ca

"John Morris has plenty of heart and soul."

Old Wives' Tale

Younger Limbs

The Creative Motel, Inc.

"...amped-up, high-focus, twitchy, and sweaty. This is late-night music -- churning synths, funky basslines, and DFA Records-style cowbell create a roiling, speed-paranoia vibe that still stays danceable. - Miami New Times. Brothers Jaime and Felipe Valencia formed Old Wives' Tale in 2006 shortly after making the decision to relegate their biology, chemistry, music and audio engineering diplomas to mere wall decorations. Infected by an angst that resonated in every indie club in Miami's design district, Jaime and Felipe joined their contrasting music personalities to create a fresh sound composed of distorted bass lines, disco beats, ripping guitars, and lyrics referencing alter-egos, heart-breaking love affairs, and one-night stands. Younger Limbs is a perfect example of what the brothers have coined "amphetamine music." It'll take just one listen to hear the term justified. Songs such as "danceDanceDAncing," "Royal Flesh," "Vending Johnny," and the stand out single "[15]Amphetamine" (along with it's impressive accompanying video recently selected by Michel Gondry [Eternal Sunshine of The Spotless Mind] as the "Audience Choice Award" winner in the Babelgum.com Video Music Awards) all live up to the "amped-up, high-focus, twitchy, and sweaty" declaration of the Miami New Times above.

"This man can do no wrong." – Time Out, November 2009

Being the hardest working man in music and all, Chilly Gonzales is also in the process of completing a feature length film that shares the same title as the new album, Ivory Tower. Co-written by himself and Celine Sciamma (who wrote the award winning French film Waterlillies / La Naissance des Pieuvres) and starring Chilly, Tiga and Peaches, the film is an an existentialist sports comedy about chess and success.

First single 'Never Stop' produced by Boys Noize marks a musical departure for Gonzales from his last albums Solo Piano (2004) and Soft Power (2007) as he delves into yet another genre with ease, seemingly doing it better than all the poor schmucks who spend a lifetime trying. From the stark finger click intro, swiftly joined by the layers of piano and Gonzo's 'Never Stop' vocal refrain, we are taken on a deft and addictive journey that builds into an acidic euro pop crescendo. 'Do it again?' Don't mind if we do thanks.

since we last spoke i learned about chess.
seriously i thought i had enough but the
brain work of visualizing a chess board
saved my ass. boys noize is a musical genius
so thank the gods that he was there to pick up my slack. people helped me and its
shaken up all of my misanthropic beliefs.
i understand why entertainers are generous
its because they have to be. but regular
people? why would they do that?
this is me asking you to enjoy this.

Skinny Dippin'

D[illegible]-Funke-Gordon-Tripuzzi

If the shoe fits, why don't you wear it.
If the dress is tight, why don't you tear it.
If the mood is right, why don't you hear
it. Let's go Skinnydippin.

One shoe off then the other one.
One leg out then the other one,
Just take your shirt off now we've just begun, Let's go Skinnydippin.

One toe in then the other one.
It's a little nippy but we're havin fun
Stick your feet into the mud and then Let's get down and dirty.

I saw your hiney, it's kinda shiney
Don't try to fake it I saw you naked.
You better hide it before I bite it,
Let's go skinnydippin.

Let's go let's go, Let's go skinnydippin
Now we're slippin and we're slidin.
Between our bodies the water's glidin.
Oh the moon is out and the time is right
Seize the day and go all night.

So Sweet

Funke

Did You Say what I think you said that I saw? Or was it something I heard?
Just sit back relax yourself and speak
your mind I want to hear every word.

Rain stains my window pain and it's not the same Thing as yesterday when the sky was blue. Ride ten thousand days and nights 'till ancient suns fall like a singing angel through an open door to you.

Searching through the desert
for a shooting star.
Sunlight kissed the golden sand.
Looking all around me just as far as I can, (I'm the) last sould on dry land
The other night was yesterday
We're here now and that is meant to stay. Tomorrow's close or is it far?
Will you be what you think you are?

It's just pretending to know better
Last, thought I was the only one.
[illegible] the next door we meet
It don't matter what the old folks say
Love comes clearing up a cloudy day
Falling, falling at my feet
If only life could be
So sweet.

My Child

Gordon

My child how can I explain this
My child how can I ease your mind
I just want you to know
That though I cannot stay
In no way am I leaving you behind

My child how can I explain this
My child too young to understand
What goes on between
a father and mother
A human and their lover
A woman and a man

My child I have walked a mile
My child in the shoes
you're wearing now
And I believe in time
You will find your peace of mind
Or at least as much as this world will allow

Lord Raise my child up
Lord be my calming touch

And if she cries for me
in the middle of the night
Send an angel to her bedside
to sing her lullabies
Send an angel to her bedside
to sing her lullabies

When I called my old friend Steve Wedemeyer to tell him I was thinking of recording another album, he said two words. "East Nashville." A few phone calls, a week off from the Band of Heathens, and a 900-mile drive to Tennessee later, I'm looking for Joe McMahan's studio, cradled between the halfway houses and soul food joints of the Nashville underground. Juju beads, tape machines, goat nail shakers, walls of vintage amps, an oil-on-velvet portrait of Freddy Fender above an analog mixing board, a vinyl library of 1950's rock 'n' roll and soul records... Vibe was everywhere. This was the idea behind the sessions. Vibe. No digital undo. No cut and paste. Just people in a room making music. The warmth of analog tape and skin on soul. A soundscape catalog of this crazy ride. Highways, Heathens, Gypsies, Demons, Austin, Kerrville, Sydney, Nashville, Blacktops, Bruises, Vixens, Mud... Here Comes the Flood.

weeper "Real Ole Cajun Me" pungently emphasize the fiddler's Louisiana roots. "Juke Box Songs" romps along with impunity, while Kershaw's remake of Ray Price's 1956 hit "You Done Me Wrong" packs a waltz-time wallop.

There were some unapologetic stabs at placing Doug back on the hit parade. Huey tried him out on pleasing covers of Johnny Nash's reggae/R&B hybrid "Hold Me Tight," a huge '68 crossover hit for Nash (Doug's cover incorporates a slick girlie chorus), and Creedence Clearwater Revival's snarling 1969 smash "Bad Moon Rising." Meaux had been behind the formation of Doug Sahm's Sir Douglas Quintet, producing their '65 Tex-Mex stomp "She's About A Mover;" by the time they waxed their 1969 hit "Mendocino," they were long gone from his talent stable, so perhaps Kershaw's cover was a response to their exit.

The SDQ waxed their second hit "The Rains Came" while reveling in their first concentrated blast of Huey-helmed success. Kershaw does right by it here, the female backing vocalists melodically echoing his teary lament. Sahm penned the saucy "We'll Take Our Last Walk Tonight," and like "The Rains Came," it appeared on the Quintet's debut LP.

A memorable 1969 bow on Johnny Cash's new weekly TV variety show was crucial in making Kershaw a star. Warner Bros. signed the fiddler, and at year's end he opened for Eric Clapton's Derek & the Dominos at Fillmore East. The Cajun Way, his first Warner LP in '69, featured remakes of "Louisiana Man" and a charting version of "Diggy Liggy Lo" alongside fresh material, and it was followed by Spanish Moss in 1970 (revisiting "Cajun Joe" and his RCA-era "Cajun Stripper"), a '71 eponymous set, Swamp Grass and Devil's Elbow in '72, 1973's Douglas James Kershaw, Mama Kershaw's Boy in '74, and Alive and Pickin' in '75.

1976's Ragin' Cajun found Doug revisiting his self-penned "It Takes All Day (To Get Over Night)" from the Meaux era and scoring a #76 C&W hit with it. He closed out his WB tenure with Flip, Flop & Fly in 1977 and a minor hit on a remake of Fats Domino's "I'm Walkin'." Switching over to Scotti Bros., Doug nailed his biggest solo C&W seller in 1981 with "Hello Woman," and he teamed with Hank Williams Jr. in '88 for his first duet hit since his breakup with Rusty, "Cajun Baby," on BGM.

This Cajun's still ragin'!

Injecting a stratospheric energy level into his manic onstage exploits that bordered on the demonic, Doug Kershaw's savage Cajun fiddle sawing and bayou-bred vocals thoroughly startled the rock arena when he began to attract mainstream attention at the close of the 1960s.

Green Parrot Bar, Key West

OK, I don't know what it means either, but I know it's profound. Kind of like this CD. Please consider this our profound love note to Rockin' Jake Band fans across the country. It contains all our kicked up, high octane numbers that people keep requesting every night. We recorded for four historic nights to a wild, wacked out crowd definitely feelin' the vibe at the world renowned Green Parrot – on New Year's Eve no less. The band was in sync after 2 nations' beat and we just kicked it further into raucous, lowdown, drunk and feverish debauchery...well, you know what we're good at. Enjoy! – Rockin' Jake

Thank you: Mom and Dad, Yasmine, Soraya and the little ones, Mr. Gulzar, Saad and Tolo TV (thank you so very much for your generosity), Tom Kim (our angel),
Jaweed (aka MacGyver), kaka Hamid, Max (my o.g. partner), Paloma, and Emily for coming on the journey
(and all of their brave families for letting them come), Elliana, our beautiful Ustad friends (what a dream come true),
Tom Kim (our savior), Kam Air, David and Emily Lynch (the Bug and Ladydog) for always believing in me since day one!
And for being a source of incredible inspiration and support, Afghanistan (my beautiful muse),
Leyla, Tiger, Ben and Heartsrevolution, Devendra, Hecuba, Lo Dukoff, the Kolar family, Molly, Lauren,
Paul Beehan and Manimal Vinyl, the Fleischer sisters and Lots of Love, Matthew Johnson and Brad Fisher,
Carlos and Miguel (truly my angels), all of my extended family, Jessica, Neven, Grace and Theo, Nick, Christo,
Beau Raymond Fletcher, Cave Country, Dana and Danielle, Katie, Marouan, James Burton, David Garza, Allakoi, Charlie,
Ben Lee and Ione Sky, Naz Arandi, Joan Zajac, Diana Castle (my mystical mentor),
kk (thank you for teachin me all them Hendrix songs), Mara, Matthew Kaplan, Annakim Violette, Adam and Angeline (cavern),
JD, Patrick Hoelck, Marco, Craig, Robin and Chaim, Jason and Austin, Anna, Mindy, Noriko, Alia and Meckenzie, Alexis,
Julian and Jenee Wasser, Zach, Jabari, Be, everyone who played on/worked on this album- thank you for creating this with me,
Robert Francis, Joachim Cooder, hello stranger and Juliette Comagere, Maximilla, Guy and the entrance band, Jonathan Wilson, Becky Stark and the ladies choir, all of the beautiful artists I'm friends with and have played shows with-
thank you for inspiring me all of the time and for creating such an exciting moment in music.
We have only just begun...

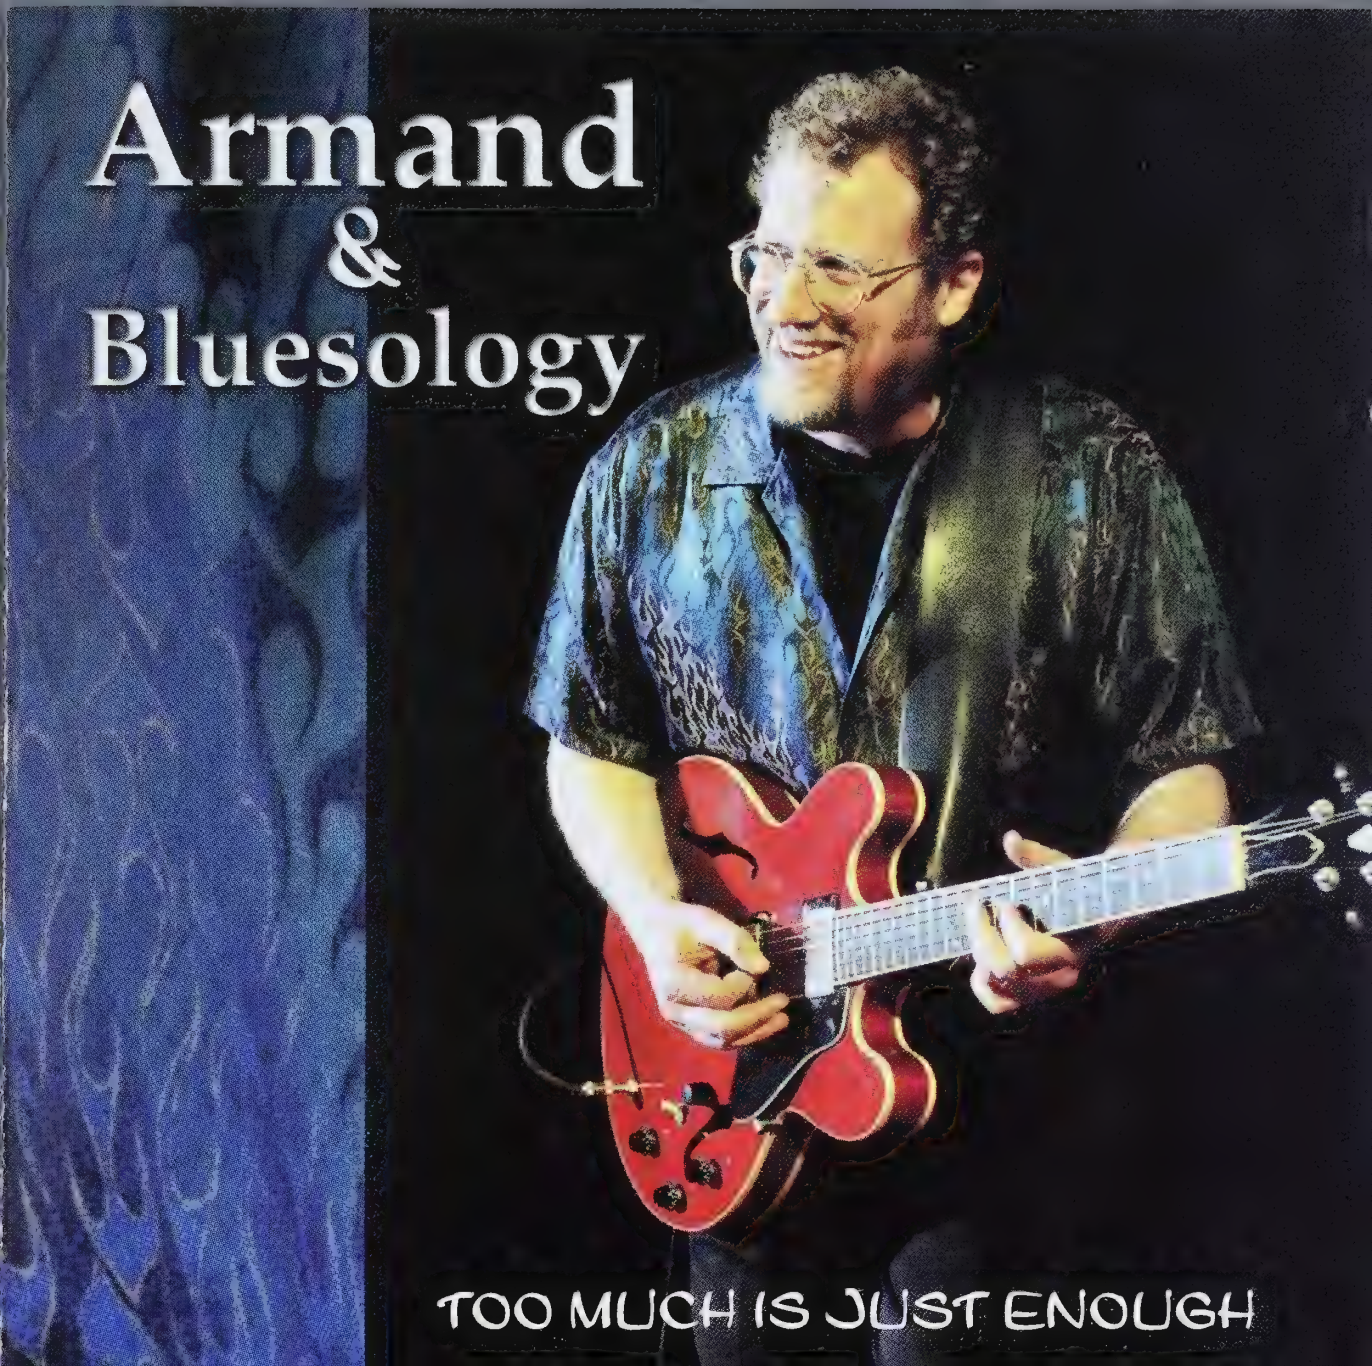
Armand & Bluesology



TOO MUCH IS JUST ENOUGH

I had the good pleasure of sitting in with Armand very soon after I came to North Carolina. Having just moved from Muscle Shoals, Alabama, where I'd spent the last twenty years playing with some world class R&B guys, I didn't really know what to expect. It didn't take but a few bars into the first tune for his live energy to dynamite me out of my safer studio head and into his infectious good time. I knew we'd be friends. He loves what he's doing, and he knows the blues aren't just about sad life--they're about life. He admittedly (as we all do) tips his hat to some of the greats--B.B., Albert, Stevie Ray--I hear some Lonnie Johnson in his ballads, and some Freddie King when he stings it-From the great feeling finger style thing he does on Missin' the Whole Point, to getting a little outside on New Kakalaky Blues, there's a lot going on here.. And he has the confidence, i.e. guts, to go into the studio three piece and honestly hang himself out there. I think he captures a lot of who he is musically on this cd. Pick it up--put in on--turn it up--and catch him when he's nearby. Enjoy.

an album by

Mary Gauthier

I WAS BORN to an unwed mother in 1962 and subsequently surrendered to St. Vincent's Women and Infants Asylum on Magazine Street in New Orleans, where I spent my first year. I was adopted shortly thereafter but left my adopted family at fifteen. I wandered for years looking for, but never quite finding a place that felt like home. I searched for, found, and was denied a meeting with my birth mother when I was 45 years old. She couldn't afford to re-open the wound she'd carried her whole life, the wound of surrendering a baby.

THE FOUNDLING is my story.

Mike & Phil - drums, percussion

Special thanks to Wisey for putting up with my bad attitude over the years, to Jeff Simon for being such a great guy burning the midnight oil while munching on Subway cookies and coffee in the wee hours of the night, and to Charles (Jenna) for being there for many years through all the good and bad times mapping out the dream on Blueberry Hill (Devon). Also, special thanks to all those who believe in the dream.

I dedicate this album to Mama and Papa and most of all to the Great One who dwells on Mt. Zion.

To our fans:
All of this is made possible because of your never ending support.
You guys are the sole reason we keep going.
Without you, this album would have never been possible.
COTW loves you all.

COTW would also like to thank:
All of our families, friends and fellow musicians who continue to inspire and encourage us.
Jason Reynoso, Mike Hill, Josh Prior, Todd Wade, Mark K, Josh Rice, Robbie Watson, Larry Elyea at Minds Eye Studios, Fender Musical Instruments, Jason at Chasers, Hotchy & our friends at New Times, 98 KUPD, 103.9 "The Edge", Kim at Club Red,
Matt "Pencrazy", Robbski, Golden Tung crew, The Hydrafonik Krew
Special thanks to BJ for all the artwork, a good friend and a great inspiration!

This album is dedicated to the memory of CPT

Cannonball Adderley, alto & soprano saxophone; with Nat Adderley, cornet; Johnny Cook, Miles Davis, trumpet; John Coltrane, tenor saxophone; Bill Evans, Hank Jones, Wynton Kelly, Joe Zawinul, piano; Paul Chambers, Mit Hinton, bass; Art Blakey, drums; and others.

The portrait of the artist as a survivor has had a number of unsavory aspects — so often the result of the harsh conditions under which he has had to make his music. But Julian "Cannonball" Adderley was one musician whose nurturing, stylish world perfectly echoed the boisterous, healthy soul that he was.

Adderley came to New York shortly after Charlie Parker died and within a few years had joined Miles Davis's legendary sextet which also included John Coltrane.

But Adderley's first career had been as a public school teacher, and so he needed to return to leading by instinct. He formed his own distinctive quintet with his brother Nat, which enjoyed nearly two decades of great artistic and popular success. Having incorporated all of the most modern technical innovations, his saxophone style remained reassuring — but without ever becoming predictable.

PRESTIGE
PRCD-5709-2

THESE 1956-1957 RECORDINGS BY ALTO GIANT JACKIE McLEAN find one of Charlie Parker's heirs apparent moving out from under Bird's shadow to find his own personal means of expression. McLean's acidic tone and blunt rhythmic attack are heard in a quartet setting on a blues and four standards, where he is accompanied by pianist Mal Waldron (an associate from his tenure with Charles Mingus); and there are also samples of collaborations with two of his favorite trumpeters, Donald Byrd and Bill Hardman, as well as an alto battle with John Jenkins that reveals how quickly McLean himself had become an influence on the instrument.

Sonya Perkins ...and you linger...

(THE GOOD FEAR)

THE GOOD FEAR

NEXT TIME I PLAY CARNEGIE HALL

CREDITS

Surviving childhood locked in my room with record player, assorted albums, and stacks of 45's, was like holeing up in a bunker waiting for the bombs to stop falling. One album, "The Old Philosophy" by veteran funny man Eddie Lawrence, kept me in hernia-popping hysterics through those gloomy times of self-doubt, fear, and disillusionment. His silly, intellectual wit was paramount compared to the one-liner comedians of his time. This collection is dedicated to him for literally saving my life. "I Want My Own Room" goes out to Ambrose and his girlfriend, that great record of a man and his woman walking in the subway tunnels in the mid-1950's. Heartfelt appreciation to Everett Lowe, my friend and benefactor.

Chris Gantry has written over 1,000 songs, including collaborations with such luminaries as Kris Kristofferson, Mel Tillis, Shel Silverstein, and Eddie Rabbit. His songs have been recorded by Johnny Cash, Glen Campbell, Reba McEntire, Roy Clark, Robert Goulet, Waye Newton, and many others. His "Dreams of the Everyday Housewife" won the Nashville Songwriter Award, three MMI awards, and the Millionaire's Award for over two million performances; it was also recently featured on the Desperate Housewives soundtrack.

A truly special compilation, THE INNER FLAME brings an accomplished - and remarkably diverse - group of talents together to acknowledge the inspirational work of cult blues artist Rainer Ptacek. As eclectic as it is fascinating, the album is highlighted by all-new recordings from such top artists as Page & Plant, Emmylou Harris, PJ Harvey & Jon Parrish, Madeleine Peyroux and Victoria Williams.

THE BAND - TO KINGDOM COME

ROBBIE ROBERTSON INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

1. Would you say the Band's musical style changed much from working with Ronnie Hawkins to working with Bob Dylan?
2. Didn't The Band tour with Bob Dylan during his transition from acoustic to electric when the audiences were booing him?
3. You've been writing from an early age, haven't you . . . even before you hooked up with Ronnie Hawkins?
4. The Band's first album on its own was "Music From Big Pink". Wasn't some of it recorded in New York, and some in L.A.?
5. One of the songs from "Big Pink" was "The Weight". Wasn't that inspired by the Spanish film maker Luis Bunuel?
6. A lot of the songs you write either are historical or seem that way. Did you do a lot of reading about the past to write those songs?
7. With the songs you wrote for The Band, how did you decide which of the guys would sing lead?
8. Obviously the southern United States was the inspiration for "The Night They Drove Old Dixie Down".
9. The Band's second album was originally not going to be called "The Band", but wasn't there some confusion about the groups name?
10. What came after "The Band" album?
11. The "Rock Of Ages" album was recorded live in New York City over three nights. How did that album come about?
12. "Up On Cripple Creek" was The Band's first Top 40 hit. Were you excited by having a "hit record"?
13. For the "Moondog Matinee" album, did each of you decide which classic rock songs you were going to do?
14. How did you come to write "Acadian Driftwood"?
15. Being inducted into the Juno Hall of Fame this year, how did you feel?
16. What are your feelings about this new Band collection, "To Kingdom Come"?

Capitol RECORDS NASHVILLE

PLEASE SEE REVERSE FOR CONDITIONS OF USE.

Capitol Records Nashville supplies pre-release copies of its recordings to newspapers, magazines and other media for the purposes of pre-awareness. These pre-release copies contain encryption to enable us to trace any unauthorized use of these recordings in breach of our intellectual property rights.

Through the encryption process, we have discovered that recent pre-release copies of some of our recordings were uploaded onto P2P Internet services (peer to peer file sharing services) that unlawfully trade in unauthorized distribution of recordings. This uploading and the subsequent file-sharing blatantly infringes our intellectual property rights, and damages the legitimate economic interests of the artists, Capitol Records Nashville and the music publishers/songwriters.

You should be aware that we are carefully monitoring the use of our pre-release copies by their recipients, including use by journalists and publishers who should be sensitive towards intellectual property rights since they derive a living from the creativity and investment that these rights protect and stimulate.

Any promotional (pre-release) CDs that we supply to our media contacts are supplied in the strictest confidence and solely for the purpose of pre-awareness. They are supplied on the condition that they may not be sold, altered, transferred or copied in any way (including, without limitation, by CD burning or uploading to the Internet). You will be held liable and responsible for any unauthorized use of the relevant recordings, whether undertaken by you or by any third party to whom you supply the recordings (such supply itself being a breach of these terms). Accordingly you are responsible for ensuring that pre-release CDs do not pass into the possession of any third parties.

If you are not prepared to accept the terms set out in this letter you should immediately return any pre-release CDs that have been supplied to you and notify us of your rejection. Capitol Records Nashville will reimburse your reasonable costs of returning the CDs in question and remove you from our mailing list.

Capitol Records Nashville views all infringements of its rights extremely seriously and we fully reserve our rights to bring legal proceedings to enforce our rights. If you have any questions regarding the contents of this letter do not hesitate to contact Capitol Records Nashville regional head of anti-piracy. The person who sent this advance to you will be able to give you that person's contact details.

Capitol Records Nashville employees should adhere to the existing company policy regarding the protection of this advance.

lovingly recorded in March 2004 by Mr Guy Denning, with the kind assistance of Nails. Thanks to FLA, Ali for the transport and Phil for the shows.
Ghostwatch, in no small way, haunted the production of these recordings, yet we slept well....

HOW TO PEEP THE DEADLY COMETH VIDEO...

Windows 95/98/NT:

If QuickTime is installed and autoplay is enabled on your CD-ROM drive, the video will automatically play. If the video doesn't automatically play, double click the "My Computer" icon on your desktop. Double click the icon for your CD-ROM drive (usually D: or E:, it will have a Sprite icon). The video will automatically play. If the video does not play, but you see the Sprite player and receive a black screen or an X in the video window, you need to install QuickTime. To install QuickTime from the CD, right click the Sprite CD icon, choose Explore and double click the file "QuickTime30" on the CD. After QuickTime has installed, double click the CD again to play the video.

Macintosh:

Double click the file "Click Me" to play the video. If the video does not play, you need to install QuickTime. Run the installer located in the QuickTime folder on the CD.

If the Sprite video player screen launches, but all you get is a black screen when you hit play, QuickTime is not installed on your computer. Install QuickTime following the above instructions. After QuickTime is installed, the video will play.

If the video plays without sound or is very choppy, your computer isn't powerful enough to run the video. Buy a new computer or borrow a friend's.

UBIQUITY RECORDS PRESENTS

THE CLONIOUS: BETWEEN THE DOTS

FOR INFORMATION AND SOUNDCLIPS OF OUR TITLES, GO TO WWW.UBIQUITYRECORDS.COM/PRESS STREET DATE: 10/13/2009

Somewhere between the past and the distant future, sparked by dusty old jazz records and beat generation hip hop, at the sonic cross-roads of Detroit and Vienna, lies a series of sound stories steeping in the head of 23 year old beat navigator Paul Movahedi, also known as The Clonious.

The Adroit Adventures EP, released on Ubiquity in June, was the first of those tales to exit his dome and hit limited edition wax. It was immediately picked up by the likes of Mary Anne Hobbs (who aired a Clonious mixtape the week of it's release) and Bengie B on BBC Radio. DJs from Helskinki to Tokyo to New York also gave thumbs up to his unique blend of bouncy cosmic vibes and glitchy shoegazer funk. On Between The Dots his debut album, Movehadi continues his development of sounds that are at once new and classic, soulful and striking, organic and electronic.

"If a regular hip-hop head and the biggest IDM nerd both find a track on the album that they like, it would make me happy," says Movahedi. "The album is the sum of what I like. The tracks are little adventures that just want to say hello," he adds.

While "Fogged Spacesuit," the ideal tune for astronauts on a spacewalk, and the outerworldly soul of "One At A Time," (featuring Muhsinah, and remixed for the album) swell and bump, tracks like "Emora" are more angular and to the point, building around a focussed theme. Keeping the beats edgy, Movahedi lets the jazz and improv fly between the dots on "If Joe Had The Power," and even more on the short "Agenda" and "Hang On." There's a Herbert-like warmth to the cut n'paste style of the more uptempo "Bugs N'Fools" and "Leaving Belief" should please the ears of Jazzanova and Atjazz fans with their floor friendly beats.

"I don't really care how people explain my music. You will most definitely find references to others, and that's cool with me," says Movahedi. "You can't invent the wheel a second time. It's about your mix of influences, and with every record I have ever listened to I inhaled a piece of the world. Searching in the past always felt like looking in the future for me. The past and the future have the unknown in common - and I hope I also captured "the jazz" that make this music timeless," says Movahedi.

Other guests on the album include Dorian Concept and Cid Rim, with whom Movahedi frequently collaborates. And Los Angeles-based Georgia Anne Muldrow and partner Dudley Perkins round out the collabs, injecting some of their own brand of West Coast fonk.

"I hope to achieve that fine balance between a superficial forcefulness and a striking deepness. I come from a musical background that is heavily influenced by the jazz era of the late 1950s and 1960s. But a big part of my sound is sampling. Everything I record or produce eventually ends up in a sampler. As I see it the art of sampling comes close to a cloning process. So add my love for sampling with my love for old jazz records and the name The Clonious makes sense...I guess!" he adds.
